The municipal is a beginning as well as well as a beginning. Today we are ^{in 300th year} burdened with all these institutions ~~and~~ ^{of them when 300 years ago} the three things are with us today and all those other men who stood in their same place, took the same on this, made the same commitments to the preservation of the American constitution and its principles. ~~We are~~ ^{there is a continuity} that we have made today.

~~world in interests~~ on which we we are a young people - but an old Republic - but things we are old - at least as far as the of political systems are concerned, we must not forget that we ~~are~~ that this we are descended from devotionaries - to stand in recognition
