Ann Jaedicke Deputy Comptroller Compliance Policy

Ann F. Jaedicke has served as Deputy Comptroller for Compliance Policy in the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC), since December 2003.

In that capacity, she is responsible for OCC policy and examination procedures relating to consumer issues and anti-money laundering.

Ms. Jaedicke is a member of the Federal Financial Institution Examination Council's (FFIEC) Consumer Compliance task force and the FFIEC's Bank Secrecy Act task force. These task forces of U.S. regulators promote policy coordination and the uniform enforcement of laws and regulations. Ms. Jaedicke also sits on the OCC's Enforcement Committee and its National Risk Committee.

Ms. Jaedicke began her career in 1977 as a bank examiner in Texas. From 1984 to 1986, Ms. Jaedicke worked in the OCC's London office, where she examined branches of U.S. banks. Later she served as the Director of the OCC's Large Bank Division. In 1997, Ms. Jaedicke was promoted to Deputy Comptroller for Supervision Operations, where she managed OCC's Problem Bank Department. In 2001 and 2002, Ms. Jaedicke led projects to restructure the OCC's six districts and its headquarters in Washington D.C.

Ms. Jaedicke is a native Texan and a graduate of Texas A&M University.
