

STIMULUS WATCH: WEEK 6

New York Spends $3.8 Million in Stimulus Money to Extend an “ARTWalk”

- New York state elected to spend $3.8 million in federal stimulus funds to extend the “ARTWalk,” and urban art trail in Rochester.
- According to their website, “ARTWalk is a permanent urban art trail, connecting the arts centers and public spaces within the Neighborhood Of The Arts (NOTA)... Along ARTWalk you can find various pieces of public art, be it visual works, or practical things such as park benches or bus stops which are artfully designed. Art is even imprinted into the sidewalk!”
- Here are just two examples of the ARTWalk:
