

Resources for Questions Regarding the Emergency Economic Stabilization Act

For questions regarding Treasury's Troubled Asset Relief Program:

- Constituents should be pointed to this section of the Treasury website:
<http://www.treasury.gov/initiatives/eesa/>
- Inquiries related to procurements under the TARP program should be directed to: Treasury's Senior Procurement Executive, Tom Sharpe at 622-1039
- Specific questions on the TARP program other than procurement (Congressional office calls only) should be directed to King Mueller, Treasury Legislative Affairs 622-1900

For questions regarding changes in FDIC deposit insurance:

- Consumers should go to www.myfdicinsurance.gov where they will find an electronic deposit insurance calculator, information about deposit insurance coverage and contact information. Consumers also can always contact our regular website at www.fdic.gov and click on the Deposit Insurance tab.
- Specific questions should be directed to the FDIC by e-mail or phone:
 - Questions by e-mail can use the FDIC's online Customer Assistance Form
 - Or call toll-free: 1-877-ASK-FDIC (1-877-275-3342) Monday-Friday, 8am-8pm ET Hearing impaired: 1-800-925-4618