

Brian Gouker

Brian Gouker is a senior manager with the National Security Agency, Fort Meade, Maryland. He currently serves as the Chief of Community Outreach within the Information Assurance Directorate. Mr. Gouker is the former Deputy Director of the National Security Incident Response Center, and has served in various managerial and technical positions with NSA's Information Assurance and Signals Intelligence Directorates. Mr. Gouker has completed external assignments with the Defense Information Systems Agency (DISA), the FBNI Computer Analysis Response Team, and VeriSign, Inc. Additionally; he has been extensively involved in NSA recruiting efforts, having served as the Senior Hiring Advocate for the NSA Defensive Information Operations Group. Brian is the NSA Senior Executive Academic Liaison to West Chester University and the University of Texas at San Antonio, both Centers of Academic Excellence. He is a retired Air Force Officer having served in England, Colorado, Virginia, Texas, and Maryland. Mr. Gouker holds a Bachelors Degree in Computer Science from The University of Texas at Austin; a Masters Degree in Human Resources Management from Houston Baptist University; and a Masters Degree in Strategic Studies from the U.S. Army War College. He is a graduate of the National Defense University (NDU) Advanced Management Program and NSA's Senior Leadership Development Program. Brian holds the corporate Certified Information Systems Security (CISSP) and government Intelligence Community Officer (ICO) designations. Brian holds a 3rd Degree Red Belt in Ryu Kyu Karate and is fluent in American Sign Language. Brian, his wife Sandra, and their family live in Hanover, PA.