

Community Investment Program/Rural Development Advance*

Offered by:	Federal Home Loan Bank System (FHLB), (System consists of 12 district banks)
Target Credit Union Participants:	FLHB programs target credit unions wishing to invest, increase liquidity, and expand community development initiatives.
Credit Union Eligibility:	Financial institutions must apply for membership at the FHLB district office to gain access to a FHLB's credit, community development, and mortgage finance products. Members must purchase capital stock in their FHLB equal to the greater of 1 percent of their residential mortgage loans or 0.3 percent of total assets. The stock carries a fixed par value of $100 per share and pays quarterly dividends as determined by the FHLB's Board of Directors.
Contact:	Each FHLB District with the states assigned to the district are listed on the following page.
