

Financial Education for Youth

Offered by: National Endowment for Financial Education (NEFE)
In partnership with the Cooperative Extension System and the Credit Union National Association (CUNA)

Credit Union Eligibility: Credit unions working in partnership with other organizations, including credit unions.

Target Participants: High school students.

Program Objectives: 1. Provide teens with a greater understanding of and ability to manage their personal finances.

2. Focus on goal setting, budgeting, saving and credit.

Program Features and Requirements: Ten classroom hours with instructor's manual, student guides, and information packet.

Flexible six unit program, including:

1. Financial Planning: Your Roadmap
2. Career: Labor You Love
3. Budget: Don't Go Broke
4. Savings and Investments: Your Money at Work
5. Credit: Buy Now, Pay Later
6. Insurance: Your Protection

Program Cost: Free

Contact: NEFE High School Financial Planning Program
National Endowment for Financial Education
5299 DTC Boulevard, Suite 1300
Greenwood Village, CO 80111
Phone: (303) 224-3510
Facsimile: (303) 220-0838
Website: www.NEFE.org