This prohibition is effective immediately upon service. In accordance with Section 206(g)(7)(A) of the Federal Credit Union Act, 12 U.S.C. § 1786(g)(7)(A), this Order shall constitute a prohibition from further participation in any manner in the affairs of any federally insured financial institution, or other entity identified therein, without the written permission of the appropriate federal regulatory agency. You entered a plea of guilty to forgery in excess of $5,000 pursuant to §16-13-10 of the S.C. Code of Laws. In connection with your plea of guilty, you were committed to the custody of the State Department of Corrections and sentenced to serve a term of 10 years, all of which was suspended on condition that you submit to 5 years of supervised probation. Additionally, you were ordered to pay restitution in the amount of $26,666.00. Attached and incorporated by reference is a certified copy of the judgment in criminal case number 2003-GS-461220.

Your conviction for forgery resulted from dishonest acts perpetrated by you against the Civic Federal Credit Union. Due to the circumstances and nature of the offense to which you pled guilty, your continued participation in the affairs of any federally insured credit union may pose a threat to the interests of credit union members and threaten to impair public confidence in the credit union involved.
