

GovBenefits.gov

Offered by: U.S. Department of Labor
(and its 15 Federal partners)

Target Credit Union Participants: Credit union serving consumers.

Program Objective: Official benefits website that provides consumers with a single place to search more than 1,000 government assistance programs designed to meet varied needs.

Credit Union Eligibility: All credit unions may:

1. Place a link to its website on the GovBenefits.gov website. Information on how to link to GovBenefits can be found at: www.GovBenefits.gov.
2. Provide GovBenefits materials to its membership and credit union staff. Email your request for brochures and/or posters to GovBenefits@dol.gov.

Program Features and Requirements: The website also includes obscure programs, such as the Indian Employment Assistance, Direct Loans for Disabled Veterans, or the Farm Emergency Loan programs. Credit unions can use a confidential online questionnaire to help members discover focused benefit programs.

Program Cost: Free.

Contact: E-mail inquiries to: GovBenefits@dol.gov.