

National Credit Union Administration
The Resource Connection
 Partner Profiles: Description of Categories

Following is a description of a category profiled in the Partner Profiles section of this website. Each description includes a list of the organizations contained in the category and an overview of the organization's profile. To view a profile, return to the "Partner Profiles" section of the website and click on the link to the organization. The profile will contain program details such as the program objectives, target participants, eligibility requirements, features, costs, and contact information.

Financial Education

This category contains profiles of a variety of programs and resources offered to consumers by government agencies and foundations, in the area of financial education.

Organization Name Program Name	Overview
Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and U.S. Department of Labor Money Smart	Training programs to help consumers address a variety of financial management issues.
Financial Literacy and Education Commission - MyMoney - Other Resources	Resources to promote financial literacy and help consumers manage their finances.
Freddie Mac Credit Smart	Financial education resources directed toward underserved communities.
Jump$tart Coalition Personal Financial Literacy	Financial education resources directed toward youth.
National Endowment for Financial Education Financial Education for Youth	Financial education resources directed toward youth.
NeighborWorks® America - Financial Fitness Training Program - Predatory Lenders & Other Sharks in the Financial Waters	Financial Fitness: Resources to help consumers manage their finances. Predatory Lenders: Financial education resources directed toward homeowners.
Operation HOPE Banking on the Future	Financial education resources directed toward youth.
U.S. Department of the Treasury Money Math	Financial education resources directed toward youth.