

TUESDAY, JUNE 29, 1852.

On motion by Mr. Hunter,
The Senate adjourned.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 30, 1852.

Mr. Underwood announced the decease of the Honorable Henry Clay, which took place yesterday at 17 minutes past 11 o'clock a. m.; and submitted the following resolutions for consideration:

Resolved, That a committee of six be appointed by the President of the Senate, to take order for superintending the funeral of Henry Clay, late a member of this body, which will take place to-morrow, at 12 o'clock meridian, and that the Senate will attend the same.

Resolved, That the members of the Senate, from a sincere desire of showing every mark of respect to the memory of the deceased, will go into mourning for one month by the usual mode of wearing crape on the left arm.

Resolved, As a further mark of respect entertained by the Senate for the memory of Henry Clay, and his long and distinguished services to his country, that his remains, in pursuance of the known wishes of his family, be removed to the place of sepulture selected by himself, at Lexington, in Kentucky, in charge of the sergeant-at-arms, and attended by a committee of six senators, to be appointed by the President of the Senate, who shall have full power to carry this resolution into effect.

Resolved, That as an additional mark of respect to the memory of the deceased, the Senate do now adjourn.

The Senate proceeded to consider the resolutions by unanimous consent; and

The resolutions were agreed to.

Mr. Hunter, Mr. Dawson, Mr. Jones, of Iowa, Mr. Cooper, Mr. Bright, and Mr. Smith were appointed the committee of arrangements; and

Mr. Underwood, Mr. Jones, of Tennessee, Mr. Cass, Mr. Fish, Mr. Houston and Mr. Stockton were appointed the committee to attend the remains of the Honorable Henry Clay to the place of sepulture, at Lexington, Kentucky.

Ordered, That the Secretary communicate these proceedings to the House of Representatives.

Whereupon,

The Senate adjourned.

THURSDAY, JULY 1, 1852.

The Senate attended the funeral of the Honorable Henry Clay; and

On motion by Mr. Underwood,
Adjourned.
