CIENCIA POLITICA

Party influence in Congress

Steven S. Smith
Cambridge, MA ; New York, NY : Cambridge University Press,
2007.

328.73 SMI

Challenges current arguments and evidence about the influence of political parties in the U.S. Congress.
Author argues that theory must account for both the policy and electoral goals of congressional parties, as well as for sometimes conflictive collective party goals.

The political philosophy of Benjamin Franklin

Lorraine Smith Pangle
Baltimore, MD : Johns Hopkins University, 2007.

973.3 FRA

Franklin's political writings are full of fascinating reflections on human nature, on the character of good leadership, and on why government is such a messy and problematic business. Drawing together threads in Franklin's writings, Lorraine Smith Pangle illuminates his thoughts on citizenship, federalism, constitutional government, the role of civil associations, and religious freedom.

CIENCIAS SOCIALES

Contested waters : a social history of swimming pools in America

Jeff Wiltse
Chapel Hill, NC : University of North Carolina Press, 2007.

306.481 WIL

Relates how, over the years, pools have served as asylums for the urban poor, leisure resorts for the masses, and private clubs for middle-class suburbanites. As sites of race riots, shrinking swimsuits, and conspicuous leisure, swimming pools reflect the tensions and transformations that have given rise to modern America.

Negative liberty : public opinion and the terrorist attacks on America

Darren W. Davis
New York, NY : Russell Sage Foundation, 2007.

323.0973 DAV

A surprising story of how September 11 affected Americans' views on civil liberties and security.

Documents the rapid shifts in Americans' opinions regarding the trade-off between liberty and security, at a time when the threat of terrorism made the conflict between these values particularly stark.

24/7 : how cell phones and the Internet change the way we live, work, and play

Jarice Hanson
Westport, CT : Praeger, 2007.

303.4833 HAN

CINEMATOGRAFIA

---

The documentary film makers handbook

Genevieve Jolliffe and Andrew Zinnes
New York, NY :
Continuum International Publishing Group,
2006.

791.4302 JOL

Contains over 110 interviews with top doc industry professionals who answer questions related to doc genres, budgeting, fundraising, broadcasting, etc. Included are 24 inspirational case studies that take an in depth look at some of the most cutting edge and controversial docs from today.

The brothers Grim : the films of Ethan and Joel Coen

Erica Rowell
Lanham, MD :
Scarecrow Press,
2007.

791.4302 ROW

Often employing satire and allegory, the Coens' movies hold a mirror up to American society, allowing viewers to both chuckle and gasp at its absurdities, hypocrisies, and foibles. In this book the author unmasks the filmmaker as prankster mythmakers exploiting and subverting universal storytelling modes to further what seems to be their artistic agenda: to elicit laughs.

'Injuns!' : Native Americans in the movies

Edward Buscombe
London : Reaktion,
2006.

791.4365 BUS

The distinguished film scholar Edward Buscombe examines the history and reception of simplistic stereotypes, and explores the depiction of Native Americans in films that offer very different portrayals from those manufactured according to the traditional Hollywood perspective.

---

CORRUPCION

---

Coining corruption : The making of the American campaign finance system

Kurt Hohenstein
DeKalb, IL : Northern Illinois University Press, 2007.

324.78 HOH

Provides a hitherto untold story about the successes and limitations of political reform. Following the evolution of the campaign finance system through the Bipartisan Campaign Reform Act of 2001 and the Supreme Court's decisions in McConnell v. FEC (2001), the author calls for a return to a broad, historical understanding of corruption.

DOCUMENTAL

---

ECONOMIA

---

The law-growth nexus : the rule of law and economic development

Kenneth W. Dam
Washington, DC :
Brookings Institution Press, 2006.

338.9 DAM

Examines the underlying mechanisms through which the law, the judiciary, and the legal profession influence the economy. Analyzes enforcement, contracts, and property rights--the concepts collectively defining rule of law--and examines their roles in the real estate and financial sectors. Extended China analysis assesses the importance of the rule of law.

EDUCACION

---

Encyclopedia of American education

Harlow G. Unger
New York, NY : Facts
On File, 2007.

REF 370.973 UNG

Easy-to-use reference for the entire educational community. With more than 2,500 entries, the encyclopedia was honored by the American Library Association as one of the best new reference works. The encyclopedia also presents in-depth examinations of the many complex problems facing American educators, such as illegal immigrants, bilingual education, campus crime, etc.

From higher aims to hired hands : the social transformation of American business schools

Rakesh Khurana
Princeton, NJ :
Princeton University
Press, 2007.

650.071 KHU

Shows that university-based business schools were founded to train a professional class of managers in the mold of doctors and lawyers but have effectively retreated from that goal, leaving a gaping moral hole at the center of business education and perhaps in management itself.

Intercultural student teaching: a bridge to global competence

Edited by Kenneth Cushner, Sharon Brennan
Lanham, MD : Rowman &
Littlefield Education,
2007.

370.711 INT

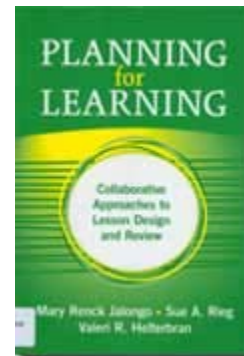

Educators play a critical role in facilitating a greater understanding of the conditions under which we all live, and play a vital role in enhancing the skills of individuals so they are better prepared to collaborate with others in the resolution of our global problems.

Planning for learning : collaborative approaches to lesson design and review

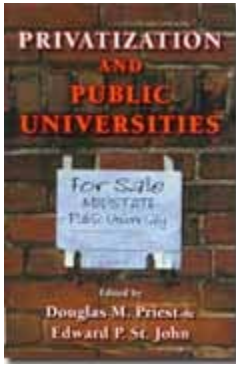

*Mary Renck Jalongo, Sue
A. Rieg and Valeri R.
Helterbran*
New York, NY : Teachers
College Press, Columbia University, 2007.

371.3028 JAL

Presents an approach to lesson planning and evaluation that will work in today's diverse school settings. A rich resource for professional development, this book demonstrates collaborative lesson planning for teachers at particular career phases-pre-service, novice, and experienced.

Bloomington, IN : Indiana University Press, 2006.

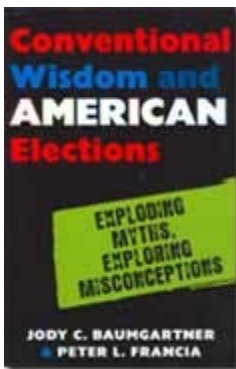

378.1 PRI

Experts explore the challenges of improving the quality of education and research while facing reduced financial support. They examine several approaches borrowed from private institutions and the corporate sector that might help address this fiscal crisis.

---

ELECCIONES

---

Conventional wisdom and American elections : exploding myths, exploring misconceptions

Jody C. Baumgartner and Peter L. Francia
Lanham, MD : Rowman and Littlefield, 2008.

324.7 BAU

Covers topics including campaign finance, political participation and voting, the role of campaigns, Internet campaigning, negative campaigning, political parties, and the role the media plays in the electoral process. Each chapter is fairly short, yet the book offers comprehensive coverage of the subject matter.

The first modern campaign : Kennedy, Nixon, and the election of 1960

Gary A. Donaldson
Lanham, MD : Rowman and Littlefield, 2007.

324.973 DON

Tells the story of Kennedy versus Nixon with a sharp eye for the salient political developments and a keen sense of the drama of an election that was unlike any other the nation had experienced. This is an essential and engaging reading for anyone interested in contemporary politics in the United States.

Guide to the 2008 Elections

Gregory Giroux
Washington, DC : CQ Press, 2008.

324.973 GIR

For unsurpassed reporting and analysis, this guide is the perfect source for keeping track of the candidates, making sense of the issues, and figuring out what impact this historic election will have on the political system.

The making of the presidential candidates 2008

Edited by William G. Mayer
Lanham, MD : Rowman and Littlefield, 2008.

324.273 MAK

Presents a broad overview of the presidential nomination process through a detailed examination of some of its most significant components, and to showcase some of the most interesting work now being done on the politics of presidential selection.

Message control: how news is made on the presidential campaign trail

Elizabeth A. Skewes
Lanham, MA :
Rowman and Littlefield, 2007.

324.73 SKE

This book comes out from the author's experience traveling with campaigns from the road, and research on campaign news. The author investigates journalists beliefs and the role those beliefs play in the election process, as well as how the routines of campaign reporting affect news coverage.

---

ESTUDIOS DE GENERO

---

Making science fair : how can we achieve equal opportunity for men and women in science?

Robert Leslie Fisher
Lanham, MD :
University Press of America, 2007.

507.1 FIS

Approximately 10 percent of full professors in the S.T.E.M. disciplines, and 4 percent in physics and engineering are women, one of the lowest rates among highly developed nations. Top scientists with African-American, Latino, or American Indian ancestry are barely represented. The solution to this gender imbalance is to recruit more native-born women and underrepresented minorities for senior positions in American science.

ETICA

---

Responsibility at work : how leading professionals act (or don't act) responsibly

Howard Gardner, editor
San Francisco, CA :
Jossey-Bass, 2007.

174.4 RES

Responsibility at Work is an important new contribution to understanding what leads to ethical behavior in the workplace. The book is a product of the GoodWork Project that began as a collaboration of Howard Gardner, Mihaly Csikszentmihalyi, and William Damon in 1994. Since that time, a significant amount of research has been conducted to understand which factors affect responsible behavior in the workplace and how to foster habits of acting responsibly.

HISTORIA

---

The creation of the presidency, 1775-1789 : a study in constitutional history

Charles C. Thach
Indianapolis, IN :
Liberty Fund, 2007.

352.23 THA

Fresh from a battle against monarchy, the American Founders were wary of a strong executive, but they were equally conscious that unchecked legislative power risked all the excesses of democracy. Creating an effective executive who did not denominate the legislative body posed a significant challenge. The author's lucid analysis reveals how these conflicting concerns shaped the writing of the Constitution and the early clarification of executive powers.

INMIGRACION

---

Immigrants and boomers : forging a new social contract for the future of America

Dowell Myers
New York, NY :
Russell Sage
Foundation, 2007.

304.873 MYE

Looks to California as a bellwether state to afford us a glimpse into the future impact of immigration on the rest of the nation. Myers opens with an examination of the roots of voter resistance to providing social services for immigrants, and demonstrates that long-established immigrants have been far more successful than the public believes. The impressive progress made by immigrant families suggests they have the potential to pick up the slack from aging boomers over the next two decades.

---

LITERATURA

---

Ciudad de cristal

Paul Auster ; translated by Francisco Perez Navarro
Barcelona : Editorial Anagrama, 2007.

S F AUS

Con este relato se inició la trilogía de Nueva York, un deslumbrante conjunto de thrillers posmodernos que, según los críticos, marca un nuevo punto de partida para la novela norteamericana y que consagró a Paul Auster como un clásico contemporáneo.

Crónicas marcianas

Ray Bradbury; prólogo de Jorge Luis Borges
Barcelona : Minotauro, 2006.

S F BRA

Esta colección de relatos recoge la crónica de la colonización de Marte por parte de la humanidad que huye de un mundo al borde de la destrucción. Estas historias constituyen un canto contra el racismo, la guerra y la censura, destilando nostalgia e idealismo.

Cuentos completos

Truman Capote
Barcelona : Anagrama, 2006.

S F CAP

El presente volumen recoge por primera vez la totalidad de los cuentos de Capote, que habían aparecido en su mayor parte, desperdigados en varios libros. Como novedad, esta antología incluye un relato inédito: "La Ganga", escrito en 1950. Además de estos, se dan a conocer en español, otras historias más: "Las paredes están frías", "Un visión propio", "La forma de las cosas", "La leyenda de Preacher" y "En los umbrales del paraíso".

Cuentos de Nueva York

O. Henry; translated by Leon Mirilas
Madrid : Espasa Calpe, 2005.

S F HEN

Estos cuentos constituyen el mejor ejemplo de la peculiar manera de narrar de este gran escritor. La ironía, en ocasiones cercana al sarcasmo, y la ternura salpican las páginas de estos magníficos relatos en los que se dibuja con una lucidez poco común la vida diaria en una de las ciudades más asombrosas del mundo: Nueva York.

El fin de la inocencia : antología de cuentos norteamericanos del siglo XIX

Mirta Rosenberg and Jaime Arrambide
Buenos Aires : Biblos, 2005.

S 813 FIN

Esta colección de cuentos pretende guiar al lector por el momento fundamental entre el nacimiento del género del cuento en Estados Unidos hasta alcanzar su madurez a fines del siglo XIX.

Gertrudis y Claudio

John Updike; translated by Jordi Fibla
Barcelona : Tusquets Editores, 2000.

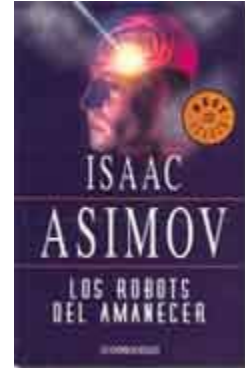

S F UPD

La tragedia Hamlet, de Shakespeare, comienza cuando el espectro del rey de Dinamarca, que acaba de morir asesinado por su hermano Claudio, se le aparece a su hijo Hamlet clamando venganza. Updike, en cambio, se remonta en la leyenda y nos adentra en un drama anterior, el de la pasión de Claudio por Gertrudis, esposa del rey asesinado, y madre de Hamlet.

Los robots del amanecer

Isaac Asimov ; translated by María Teresa Segur and Hernán Sabaté
Mexico : Debolsillo, 2004.

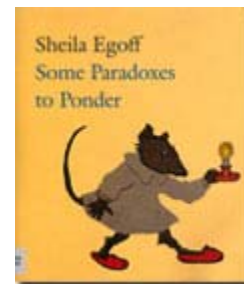

S F ASI

Basándose en sus rigurosos conocimientos científicos, Asimov ofrece una visión de lo que puede ser en siglos venideros la vida humana en el cosmos. Esta historia relata cómo en el planeta Aurora los hombres y sus robots vivían en una armonía aparentemente perfecta hasta el instante en que el robot más avanzado fue asesinado. ¿Ocultaba la muerte del androide una lucha despiadada por el control del Universo?

Some paradoxes to ponder : the puzzling and not entirely welcome development of children's literature since the nineteen sixties

Sheila Egoff
Washington, DC : Library of Congress, 1996.

810.9 EGO

The author analyses children's literature making comparisons between books available for them since the 1960s and the 1970's until now when she states that society has changed, and children's needs for reading have changed as well.

---

MEDIO AMBIENTE

---

Earth under fire : how global warming is changing the world

Gary Braasch
Berkeley, CA :
University of California Press, 2007.

363.738 BRA

In more than one hundred illustrations, including dramatic before-and-after photographs, the author records communities, landscapes and animals at risk because of receding glaciers, eroding coastlines, rising sea levels, and thawing permafrost. Including are essays from eminent scientists who discuss the impacts of climate change on the oceans, biodiversity, fresh water, mountain cultures, plants and animals, and our health.

Not a drop to drink : America's water crisis (and what you can do)

Ken Midkiff
Novato, CA : New World Library, 2007.

363.6 MID

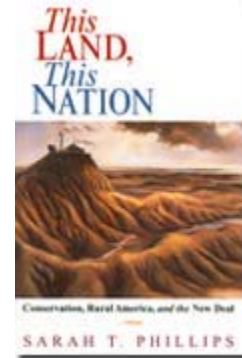

This book sounds the alarm, detailing the current state of emergency facing the U.S. water supply. From the parched High Plains to corporate boardrooms, Ken Midkiff explores water wars, privatization, American agriculture, and global warming. And what we can do to get a glass of water.

This land, this nation : conservation, rural America, and the New Deal

Sarah T. Phillips
New York, NY :
Cambridge University Press, 2007.

333.76 PHI

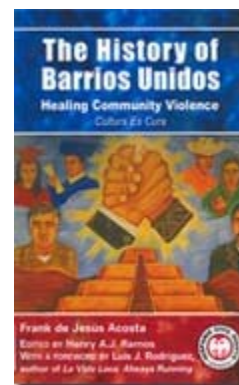

It combines political with environmental history to present conservation policy as an arm of New Deal economic reform, one that embodied the promises and limits of New Deal liberalism, and begins in the 1920s by tracing the emergence of a set of conservationist concerns closely linked with analyses of rural welfare.

MEXICOAMERICANOS

---

The history of Barrios Unidos : healing community violence

Frank de Jesús Acosta
Houston, TX : Arte
Público Press, 2007.

303.6 JES

Through interviews, written testimonies, and documents, the development of Barrios Unidos is reconstructed from its early influences and guiding principles to its larger connection to the on-going struggle to achieve civil rights in America. The text is complemented by historical photos and commentaries by leading civil rights activists.

MUSICA

---

Ask me now : conversations on jazz and literature

NATIVOS AMERICANOS

---

Indian warriors [videorecording]: the untold story of the Civil War

The History Channel

New York, NY : A&E
Television Networks,
[2007]

DVD 973.74 IND

Discover one of the more obscure, yet fascinating aspects of the Civil War era: the contribution of thousands of Native American soldiers. With the help of respected authors Thom Hatch and Lawrence Hauptman, this program reconstructs the forgotten stories of some of these men.

Native vote : American Indians, the Voting Rights Act, and the right to vote

*Daniel McCool, Susan M.
Olson, and Jennifer L. Robinson*
New York : Cambridge University Press, 2007.

324.6 MCC

The right to vote is the foundation of democratic government; all other policies are derived from it. Yet there is an "astounding lack of research" on Indian politics, especially Indian voting. This book examines the impact that landmark legislation has had on the voting rights of American Indians.

POESIA

---

Changing rapture : Emily Dickinson's poetic development

Ailiki Barnstone
Hanover : University Press of New England, 2006.

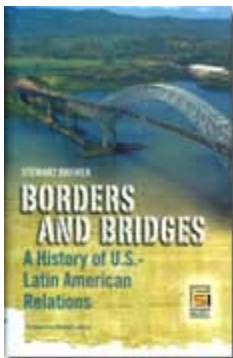

811.4 DIC

Ailiki Barnstone challenges the common assumption that Emily Dickinson's poetry did not change and evolve over the course of her career as a poet. She argues that this notion of her lack of development, while it contributes to the established myth of the isolated and timeless Dickinson, has tended to diminish our appreciation of her as a poet and thinker whose voice is both an innovative artistic achievement and a cultural commentary

POLITICA EXTERIOR

---

Borders and bridges : a history of U.S.-Latin American relations

American time use : who spends how long at what

Ithaca, NY : New Strategist Publications, 2007.

REF 306.48 AME

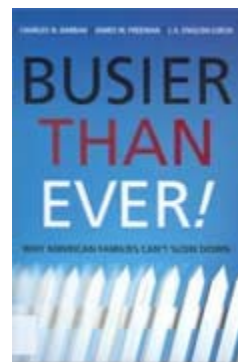

Presents detailed time use data for the most important demographic characteristic in determining how people spend their time-their age. The activities everybody chooses to do during 24 hours and the amount of time to each activity, determines the quality of our family life, the unique features of our culture, and the driving forces of our economy.

Busier than ever! : why American families can't slow down

Charles N. Darrah, James M. Freeman, and J.A. English-Lueck
Stanford, CA : Stanford University Press, 2007.

306.872 DAR

Follows the daily activities of fourteen American families. It explores why they are busy and what the consequences are for their lives. Busyness is not just a matter of personal time management, but of the activities we participate in and how each of us create "the good life."
