By order dated October 8, 2004, the Commission ordered respondents AIM Advisors, Inc. (“AIM Advisors”) and AIM Distributors, Inc. (“ADI”) to collectively pay $20 million in disgorgement and $30 million in civil penalties. By that same order, the Commission also ordered respondent Invesco Funds Group, Inc. (“IFG”) to pay $215 million in disgorgement and $110 million in civil penalties, and ultimately ordered AIM Advisors, as the successor advisor to the IFG complex, to pay all of these amounts on behalf of IFG. According to the order, AIM Advisors, on behalf of IFG, was obligated to pay half of these amounts ($107.5 million in disgorgement and $55 million in civil penalties) to the Commission on or before December 31, 2004 and the other half of these amounts to the Commission on or before December 31, 2005. Pursuant to that order, on November 8, 2004, respondents AIM Advisors and ADI paid a total of $50 million of disgorgement and penalty to the Commission (the “AIM Distribution Fund”), and on December 29, 2004 and October 12, 2005, respondent AIM Advisors, on behalf of IFG, made separate payments of $162.5 million to the Commission (the “IFG Distribution Fund”). The AIM Distribution Fund and the IFG Distribution Fund are collectively referred to herein as the “Distribution Funds.” The Commission has solicited proposals from several tax firms, and has determined that Damasco & Associates, located in San Francisco, California, is best suited to act as tax administrator in this proceeding for each of the Distribution Funds.

The Tax Administrator, in turn, shall be responsible for paying the taxes to the IRS and the relevant state taxing authority, if any, on behalf of each QSF;
