

An aerial survey was attempted in Block 13 but low ceilings and impaired visibility precluded any useful effort. One unidentified cetacean was seen. Computer problems prevented the generation of summary files and map; those will be posted with a full Daily Report as soon as they are available.