

Curtis A. Moore
Consultant and Author

Curtis A. Moore, editor and publisher of the Health & Clean Air Newsletter, is also an international consultant and author specializing in energy and environmental matters. He served as counsel to the U.S. Senate Committee on Environment and Public Works from 1978 to 1989, when he helped draft and enact a wide variety of environmental statutes, ranging from the “Superfund” program to many of the provisions of the Clean Air Amendments of 1990.

He continues to work and write on these and related subjects in law journals, peer-reviewed publications and general circulation periodicals. His articles have appeared in The Washington Post, The New York Times, The Los Angeles Times and many other magazines and newspapers. He has co-authored one book, Green Gold: Japan, Germany, the United States and the Race for Environmental Technology, and written chapters of several others. He is now actively engaged in writing a second book with the working title of Saving Ourselves. His clients have ranged from the Tokyo Electric Power Company and the California Air Resources Board to the American Lung Association and Greenpeace.
