

Biography of
Jerry Swart
Managing Director Environmental Services
FedEx Ground

Jerry Swart manages FedEx Ground's Environmental Services Department that is responsible for developing and implementing an environmental management system sufficient to acquire FedEx Ground's compliance with environmental laws and commitments relative to its operations but also to support the company's policy for responsible sustainability of its operations.

Jerry is a Registered Professional Civil Engineer working 34 years in the consulting and transportation industry.

Jerry is Co-Chair of the Pittsburgh Champions for Sustainability (C4S) group, Treasurer of the American Society of Civil Engineers Pittsburgh section's Environmental & Water Resource Institute group, and Co-Chair of the HTUF Hybrid Parcel Delivery Truck Working Group.