AGENCY: U.S. International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that the U.S. International Trade Commission has determined not to review an initial determination (“ID”) (Order No. 12) issued by the presiding administrative law judge (“ALJ”) granting a motion to terminate the investigation as to respondent jWIN Electronics Corp. (“jWIN”) on the basis of a consent order.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This investigation was instituted on May 8, 2007, based on a complaint filed by Toshiba Corporation of Tokyo, Japan and Toshiba America Consumer Products, L.L.C., of Wayne, New Jersey (collectively, “Toshiba”). The complaint, as supplemented, alleges violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. § 1337) in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain DVD players and recorders and certain products containing the same by reason of infringement of certain claims of U.S. Patent Nos. 5,587,991; 5,870,523; and 5,956,306. The complaint named over a dozen respondents, including jWIN.

On June 15, 2007, jWIN filed a motion to terminate the investigation based upon a consent order. Both Toshiba and the Commission investigative attorney opposed the order in the form filed. In response to the oppositions, jWIN filed an amended motion to terminate the investigation on June 29, 2007, including an amended proposed consent order and consent order stipulation. On July 10, 2007, jWIN filed a further-amended proposed consent order and stipulation. On July 11, 2007, jWIN filed an errata to the amended proposed consent order. Also on July 11, 2007, Toshiba filed an opposition to jWIN's amended motion and proposed consent order, and the Commission investigative attorney filed a response in support of the amended motion and proposed consent order. Toshiba objected to the motion in its amended form, arguing that the motion is premature because the full universe of infringing jWIN products is unknown.

On July 26, 2007, the ALJ issued the subject ID, rejecting Toshiba's arguments to jWIN's motion. No petitions for review were filed. The Commission has determined not to review the subject ID.

The authority for the Commission's determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. § 1337), and in section 210.42 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 C.F.R. § 210.42).

By order of the Commission.

Secretary to the Commission
