Title II Food Aid of the Agricultural Trade Development and Assistance Act of 1954 (Public Law 480) provides U.S. food assistance in response to emergencies and disasters around the world, and provides development-oriented resources to help improve long-term food security. Title II funding is requested by the Department of Agriculture and administered by USAID.

The request includes authority to use up to 25 percent of the Title II funds for the local or regional purchase and distribution of food. The request also includes funding for certain of the services provided by USDA for P.L. 480 Title II.

The Administration did not include a detailed FY 2009 supplemental request within the Budget. The Administration will continue to review humanitarian assistance needs as needs become better known.
