

Scavenger Hunt for Quality Health Information:

Remember: There are different ways to find good answers.

- I have to do a school project on Chlamydia. Where would I find good information?
- My friend told me about this vaccine that she got to prevent HPV. I think that I might get it, too. Where would I find information on the HPV Vaccine?
- I am really worried about my friend, Sara. She cuts herself. Why does she do that and how can I help her stop?
- I need to find pictures of the male reproduction organs. Where can I find this?
- For the past several months, I have been trying to get the courage to tell my parents that I am gay. Do you have any advice?
- Help! My friend, Molly just found out that she is pregnant. What can she do?
