The Securities and Exchange Commission (Commission) issued its Order Instituting Proceedings (OIP) on September 12, 2008. The Chief Administrative Law Judge then assigned the matter to my docket and scheduled a hearing for October 8, 2008. The Division of Enforcement (Division) and the Office of the Secretary have provided evidence that the Commission delivered or attempted to deliver the OIP to Respondents by September 17, 2008, in a manner that complies with Rule 141 of the Commission's Rules of Practice.

Respondent Inter-Con/PC, Inc. (Inter-Con), has filed a timely Answer to the OIP. The Division, on behalf of itself and Inter-Con, requests that I hold a telephonic prehearing conference. That request is granted, subject to the condition that Inter-Con's outside auditor must also participate in the telephonic prehearing conference to answer questions from the Division and the undersigned about Inter-Con's efforts to become current in its periodic filing obligations by mid-November 2008.

IT IS ORDERED THAT a telephonic prehearing conference will be held at 11:00 a.m., E.D.T., on October 16, 2008.

The other four Respondents have not filed Answers to the OIP and the time for filing has expired. Accordingly, IT IS FURTHER ORDERED THAT Respondents Entertainment Technologies & Programs, Inc., Trans Global Services, Inc., XCL Ltd., and ZymeTx, Inc., shall show cause, on or before October 14, 2008, why they should not be held in default and why the registrations of their registered securities should not be revoked. Any responses to this Order must include the overdue Answers to the OIP.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> If any of these four Respondents files its overdue Answer by October 14, 2008, it will be expected to participate in the October 16, 2008, telephonic prehearing conference on the same terms as Inter-Con: i.e., the Respondent's independent auditor must also participate in the telephonic prehearing conference.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED THAT the hearing previously scheduled for October 8, 2008, is postponed until November 10, 2008, at the time and place previously announced.
