ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

NYSE ACTION DENYING APPLICATIONS SET ASIDE

The Commission issued an Order setting aside actions by the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) denying NYSE members William J. Higgins' and Michael D. Robbins' requests for permission to install telephone connections to enable them to communicate from the NYSE floor with non-members located off the floor. The Commission ordered the NYSE to take immediate action to comply with Higgins' and Robbins' requests.

In the accompanying Opinion, the Commission found that the NYSE's actions denying Higgins' and Robbins' requests for permission to install telephones to permit them to communicate with non-members located off-floor constituted a denial or limitation of access reviewable by the Commission under Section 19 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The Commission held that the NYSE had no rule, or policy enforceable as a rule, denying members the right to have direct telephone communication from the Exchange floor with non-members located off the floor. (Rel. 34-24429)

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

MAGNA TECHNOLOGIES, INC., SEVEN INDIVIDUALS SUED

The Commission filed a Complaint on May 6 in the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California seeking injunctive and other relief against Magna Technologies, Inc., formerly of Thousand Oaks, California, and seven individuals, Jacob Rubenstein, Robert Gutstein, Herbert Stone, David Siegel, Lawrence Ruben, Steven Dulyea, and Jerome Feinstein. Dulyea consented to the District Court's entry of a Final Judgment permanently enjoining him from violating certain provisions of the securities laws and rules thereunder, without admitting or denying the allegations in the Commission's Complaint. The action remains pending against Magna and the other individuals. The Commission's Complaint alleges that Magna was a sham company with no operations of substance. According to the Complaint Magna and the seven individuals engaged in a massive manipulation of the market for Magna's stock, that drove the price from under $0.75 to over $9.00 per share from March through September 1985. The Complaint alleges that during that period Rubenstein received over $1 million from his unlawful Magna stock sales, and that the market for Magna stock collapsed after the manipulative activities ceased. (SEC v. Magna Technologies, Inc., et al., USDC CDCA, Civil Action No. 87-2895, MRP, Gx). (LR-11429)
