ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

INITIAL DECISION RELEASED IN THE MATTER OF BANK OF BOSTON CORP.

Administrative Law Judge Brenda P. Murray has ordered Bank of Boston to cease and desist from committing or causing any violations and any future violations of Section 13(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rules 12b-20 and 13a-13 thereunder. Judge Murray found that the bank violated the Exchange Act and rules when it filed its Form 10-Q for the second quarter of 1989 because of overwhelming evidence that the bank knew, or should have known, when it made the filing that its financials, without explanation, were misleading, and that known trends and uncertainties in its real estate portfolio would reasonably be expected to have a material unfavorable impact on the bank's financial condition. She rejected the bank's claim that it only had forward-looking information that it was not required to disclose. The decision is appealable to the Commission. (Initial Decision Rel. 81)

DEFAULT JUDGMENT AGAINST HEINZ GREIN

The Securities and Exchange Commission announced that on December 10 the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York entered a default judgment against Heinz Grein (Grein). According to the Commission's complaint, Grein engaged in insider trading by purchasing the stock of Motel 6, L.P., and Norton Co. while in possession of material, nonpublic information concerning planned tender offers for those companies. More specifically, Grein and other defendants engaged in a scheme to purchase the stocks through offshore accounts to conceal the illegal trades. Grein tipped others who also purchased.

The default judgment permanently enjoins Grein from further violations of the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws, specifically, Sections 10(b) and 14(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rules 10b-5 and 14e-3 promulgated thereunder. The judgment also orders Grein to disgorge profits of $2,629,556.00, plus $1,498,369.18 in prejudgment interest, and to pay a civil penalty of $7,888,668.00, pursuant to the Insider Trading and Securities Enforcement Act of 1988, as amended.
