RULES AND RELATED MATTERS

OFFSHORE OFFERS AND SALES

The Commission has issued a release adopting amendments to Regulation S designed to curb abuses that have occurred under that rule with respect to equity securities of domestic issuers. As a result of these amendments, equity securities of U.S. issuers that are sold offshore under Regulation S will be classified as "restricted securities" within the meaning of Rule 144 under the Securities Act of 1933. The restricted period, which has been renamed the "distribution compliance period," applicable to these equity securities has been lengthened from 40 days to one year. The Commission is adopting amendments that will affect the reporting requirements applicable to these transactions, as well as other amendments that should prevent further abuses of Regulation S. FOR FURTHER INFORMATION, CONTACT: Felicia H. Kung, Division of Corporation Finance, at (202) 942-2990. (Rel. 33-7505; 34-39668)

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO SECURITIES ACT FORM S-8 AND RELATED RULES

The Commission has issued a release proposing amendments to Form S-8 under the Securities Act of 1933, the short-form registration statement for offers and sales of a public company's securities to its employees, and related rules. The proposed amendments are designed to eliminate misuse of this form either to avoid the Securities Act registration requirements that apply to securities sales to non-employees or to issue securities as compensation to stock promoters. The proposals also would amend Form S-8 to allow employees' family members to use the form to exercise options issued under employee benefit plans. This proposal is designed to facilitate intra-family transfers of options for estate planning purposes. The Release provides for a 60-day comment period. FOR FURTHER INFORMATION: contact Anne M. Krauskopf, Office of Chief Counsel, Division of Corporation Finance, at (202) 942-2900. (Rel. 33-7506; 34-39669; File No. S7-2-98)

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO RULES 15c2-11 AND 17a-4

The Commission has proposed for comment amendments to Rules 15c2-11 and 17a-4 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, regarding the publication of quotations in a quotation medium other than a national securities exchange or Nasdaq without specified information. The proposals would require all broker-dealers to: (a) obtain and review enhanced information about the issuer when they first publish or resume publishing a quotation for a covered security; (b) document that review; (c) update the issuer information annually if they publish priced quotations; and (d) make the information available to other persons upon request. The proposed amendment to Rule 17a-4 would incorporate the record retention requirements currently contained in Rule 15c2-11. (Rel. 34-39670; File No. S7-3-98)

ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

S. JIM FARHA ENJOINED FOR INSIDER TRADING IN THE COMMON STOCK OF PHYSICIAN CORPORATION OF AMERICA

The Commission announced that on January 13, 1998, it filed a lawsuit in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia against S. Jim Farha (Farha), a resident of Wichita, Kansas, for violations of the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws arising out of his insider trading in the common stock of Physician Corporation of America, a Florida-based health care provider which was recently acquired. Simultaneously with the filing of the SEC's lawsuit, Farha, with neither admitting nor denying the SEC's allegations, consented to a permanent injunction and agreed to pay a total of $419,318.00 in disgorgement, pre-judgment interest and a civil penalty. On January 29, 1998, the Court entered a final judgment against Farha.

According to the Commission's complaint, on March 22, 1995 Farha misappropriated from a PCA insider material, non-public information concerning an unfavorable quarterly earnings announcement for PCA scheduled to be publicly released the next day. The Commission alleges that Farha, with knowledge of PCA's unfavorable earnings announcement, sold certain of his PCA stock holdings that same day. On March 23, 1995, PCA issued its announcement and PCA stock fell approximately 20% on heavy volume. The Commission contends that Farha avoided losses of over $186,000 through his sale of PCA stock. The Commission's lawsuit further alleges that Farha began repurchasing PCA stock on March 23, 1995 and the days thereafter at prices lower than that at which he had previously sold. [SEC v. S. Jim Farha, Case No. 1:98CV00133, D.C.C.] (LR-15641)
