COMMISSION ANNOUNCEMENTS

SEC ANNOUNCES FIRST SETTLEMENT OF YIELD BURNING CASE; RESPONDENTS AGREE TO PAY $3.8 MILLION

Today, the Commission announced the first settlement of a proceeding involving the practice commonly known as "yield burning." As part of the settlement, the Commission issued an Order Instituting Proceedings, Making Findings and Imposing Remedial Sanctions and Cease and Desist Order (Order) against Respondents Meridian Securities, Inc. (Meridian Securities) and CoreStates Capital Markets (CoreStates Capital), both successor entities of Meridian Capital Markets, Inc. (Meridian), and Martin J. Stallone, a former registered representative of Meridian. Meridian Securities, CoreStates Capital and Stallone have each consented to entry of the Order without admitting or denying the findings contained in it and have agreed to pay a total of $3.8 million to resolve this action and a related claim by the United States. CoreStates Capital is a division of CoreStates Bank, N.A. The bank's parent company, CoreStates Financial Corp. (CoreStates Financial), merged with Meridian Bancorp after the events at issue.

Also today, the Commission issued an Order Instituting Public Proceedings against Steven T. Snyder (Snyder), another former registered representative of Meridian and the former director of the firm's Public Finance Department. Snyder is charged with violations of the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws in connection with the conduct described above. Snyder has not settled the charges against him, and pursuant to the Order instituting those proceedings, a date will be set for a hearing on the matter.

At the same time that the Commission's enforcement action was announced, the United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York and the Department of the Treasury announced jointly that the United States had intervened in a lawsuit filed against Meridian Securities under the qui tam provisions of the False Claims Act. The United States also filed a stipulation among CoreStates Financial, the United States, and the individual who filed the qui tam action. The stipulation discharges the qui tam suit against Meridian Securities in exchange for consideration set forth in a companion settlement agreement. The companion settlement agreement provides that CoreStates/Meridian will pay $3,400,000 to the United States to resolve False Claim Act liability for specified transactions, as well as exposure to certain claims of the Internal Revenue Service involving the tax status of certain refunding bonds listed in an addendum to the agreement. As a result of the companion settlement agreement, no payment will be required of any issuer or holder of the bonds covered by the agreement.

The settled Commission Order charges the Respondents with securities fraud. According to the allegations in the Order, between March 1993 and December 1995, Meridian and Stallone engaged in a scheme to generate profits for Meridian, a former municipal securities dealer, by charging various school districts and other municipalities in Pennsylvania and West Virginia fraudulently excessive prices for U.S. Treasury securities. The securities were sold to the municipalities in connection with certain tax-exempt refinancings known as advance refundings. The Commission alleges that, in carrying out the scheme, Meridian and Stallone engaged in yield burning. In simplest terms, yield burning occurs when a securities dealer purposely inflates the prices it charges its customers on Treasury securities. The practice is most likely to occur in connection with advance refundings and other types of municipal bond refinancings.

The Commission Order finds that, by charging excessive mark-ups, Meridian and Stallone improperly "burned" the yield. They then pocketed the excess profits. None of these facts, nor the fact that the bonds could lose their tax-exempt status, was ever disclosed to the municipalities. In some of the transactions, Meridian and Stallone also affirmatively misrepresented that the Treasury securities were purchased at fair market value and complied with the federal tax laws. The Commission also alleges that, in order to secure Meridian's selection in certain advance refundings, Meridian and Snyder made undisclosed payments to certain financial consultants in West Virginia.

CoreStates Capital and Stallone have agreed to cease and desist from future violations of the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws. They have further agreed to pay an aggregate amount of $3,820,884, of which $100,000 will be contributed by Stallone. Pursuant to undertakings ordered by the Commission, $3.4 million of this amount will be paid to the United States Treasury. The remaining $420,884 will be paid to two municipalities in Pennsylvania, Borough of Ambler and Reading School Authority, who were overcharged for the Treasury securities they purchased. However, these prices did not violate the federal tax laws. In addition to the above relief, Stallone has consented to a censure and a twelve month suspension from the securities industry, and has agreed to pay a civil penalty of $15,000. Meridian Securities has also consented to the revocation of its broker-dealer registration. (Press Rel. 98-42)

ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDING INSTITUTED AGAINST MICHAEL CROW

The Commission entered an order pursuant to Rule 102(e) of the Commission's Rules of Practice against Michael W. Crow (Crow), the former president and board chairman of Wilshire Technologies, Inc. (Wilshire). The Commission accepted Crow's offer of settlement consenting to the entry of the order, without admitting or denying the findings therein. The administrative proceeding is based on Crow having been permanently enjoined and denies him the privilege of appearing or practicing as an accountant before the Commission.

On April 20, 1998, the Honorable Edward J. Schwartz, United States District Judge for the Southern District of California, entered a judgment of permanent injunction and other relief against Crow. The judgment permanently enjoins Crow from violating the antifraud, reporting, recordkeeping, internal control, and lying to an auditor provisions of the securities laws. Crow consented to the relief without admitting or denying the allegations set forth in the Commission's first amended complaint, filed on November 1, 1996. The Commission's amended complaint alleged that Crow knew, or recklessly did not know, that Wilshire had improperly recognized conditional sales, a related party asset sale, and a disputed claim against a supplier. This amended complaint also alleged that Crow falsified certain accounting entries, omitted to state material facts to Wilshire's auditors and traded while in possession of material non-public information concerning the of accuracy Wilshire's financial statements. Cal.] (LR-15716) (LR-15716); (Administrative Proceedings - Michael Crow, CPA, Rel. 34-39902; AAE Rel. 1025; File No. 3-9581)

FINAL JUDGMENT OF PERMANENT INJUNCTION AND OTHER RELIEF ENTERED AGAINST MARK FUKUHARA

The Commission announced that on April 15 the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida, Judge G. Kendall Sharp, entered a Final Judgment Of Permanent Injunction And Other Relief against Defendant Mark T. Fukuhara. The Final Judgment, to which Fukuhara consented without admitting or denying the allegations contained within the Commission's complaint, permanently enjoins Fukuhara from committing violations of the antifraud, reporting, and record-keeping provisions of the federal securities laws, bars Fukuhara from serving as an officer or director of any publiclytraded company for a period of five years, and requires him to pay a civil penalty in the amount of $ 40,000 over the course of one year.

The Commission's complaint charged that Fukuhara and certain other officers of Laser Photonics engaged in a scheme to defraud the company's investors by materially inflating its publicly reported revenues and profits and falsifying its books and records, and then hid the scheme from Laser Photonics' independent auditors by forging, altering and concealing corporate records, and by procuring false and misleading statements from certain customers, all of which caused the company to file materially false and misleading reports with the Commission in 1992 and 1993. [SEC v. Mark T. Fukuhara, et al., Civil Action No. 97-1191-CIV-ORL-18A, USDC M.D. Fla.] (LR-15717; AAE Rel. 1026)

SEC FILES CIVIL FRAUD ACTION AGAINST NEW ERA TECHNOLOGIES INTERNATIONAL, INC. AND BRENT JONES

The Commission filed an enforcement action in federal court in Los Angeles against New Era Technologies International, Inc., based in St. Joseph, Missouri, and New Era's former president, Brent A. Jones of Ojai, California. The Commission alleges fraud in the purchase and sale of securities issued by New Era, a public company. The Commission asserts that, during Jones' employment as New Era's president, he and New Era misrepresented to two broker-dealer firms that the company's financial statements were audited. This false information was then incorporated in papers submitted to the National Association of Securities Dealers to qualify the securities for quotation on the Over-The-Counter Bulletin Board. Some time later, Jones and New Era made false statements to shareholders and others concerning the company's financial condition.

The Commission has asked the Court to permanently enjoin New Era and Jones from future violations of the securities laws, and additionally impose a civil penalty against Jones. New Era has consented to the injunction without admitting or denying the allegations in the complaint. The Commission seeks this relief for defendants' violations of Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act) and Commission Rule 10b-5. [SEC v. New Era Technologies International, Inc. and Brent A. Jones, Civil Action No. 98-3009 CAS, SHx, C.D. Cal.] (LR-15718)
