RULES AND RELATED MATTERS

ADOPTION OF UPDATED EDGAR FILER MANUAL

The Commission has issued a release adopting revisions to the EDGAR Filer Manual. The revisions update provisions of the Filer Manual governing the Legacy EDGAR system, and Form N-SAR filing, to reflect the limited changes made to those systems by the implementation of EDGAR Release 7.0.

Electronic copies of the updated EDGAR Filer Manual are available on the Commission's Web Site (<http://www.sec.gov/asec/ofis/filerman.htm>). Filers also may continue to obtain paper copies of the updated Filer Manual from our Public Reference Room, and from Disclosure Incorporated (the paper and microfiche contractor for the Commission). ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

DEFAULT ENTERED AGAINST GEORGE HELLEN

The Commission has entered an order of default against George T. Hellen. Hellen failed to file a brief in connection with his appeal to the Commission. The Commission affirmed the decision of the law judge that Hellen be barred from association with any broker, dealer, or member of a national securities exchange or of a registered securities association; pay a $150,000 penalty, disgorge $12,962 00 plus prejudgment interest, and cease and desist from committing violations or future violations of registration and antifraud provisions. (Rels. 33-7868; 34-42946; File No. 3-9201)

INVESTMENT ADVISER AND CEO SANCTIONED FOR FAILING TO ADEQUATELY DISCLOSE CLIENT REFERRAL ARRANGEMENT

On June 15, the Commission instituted proceedings charging that Founders Asset Management LLC, as successor to Founders Asset Management, Inc., and Bjorn K. Borgen, former president of Founders, defrauded certain advisory clients of Founders by failing to disclose an arrangement to use advisory clients' brokerage commissions to pay for client referrals, failing to disclose a material change in Founders' order-execution policy, and by failing to obtain best execution of trades for these advisory clients from 1992 through mid-1995. Without admitting or denying the charges, Founders and Borgen have consented to settle the proceedings, collectively agreeing to disgorge $590,000 and pay civil money penalties totaling $200,000. Borgen also has agreed to be suspended from association with any investment adviser for 180 days and Founders has agreed to be censured.

According to the Commission's Order, Founders entered into an undisclosed arrangement with William O. Foster ("Foster"), a registered representative, to route client trade orders to broker-dealers with whom Foster was associated in order to compensate him for referring clients to Founders. To accomplish this, Founders changed its execution policy in 1992 to comply with Foster's demands for increased compensation. Founders failed to obtain best execution and also failed to disclose the change in execution policy. Founders previous execution policy was to bunch same-day, same-security purchases (or sales) for the mutual funds (the "Funds") and all private accounts that it managed. Founders changed its policy, unbunched the trade orders, and executed trades for certain private accounts later than the trade orders of the Funds and other accounts, resulting in worse prices over the three and one-half years. Further, the unbunched private accounts paid commissions of 20 cents per share on same-day transactions in the same securities as the Funds and other private accounts while the latter paid much lower commissions (typically six to eight cents per share).

Specifically, the Commission found that Founders willfully violated antifraud and reporting provisions of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 ("Advisers Act") and Borgen willfully aided and abetted and caused Founders' violations of the antifraud provisions, as well as violated the reporting provisions of the Advisers Act by: (1) failing to disclose in its Form ADV or otherwise to its clients (a) Founders' arrangement with Foster pursuant to which Founders and Borgen used brokerage commissions generated from certain small privately managed accounts to compensate Foster for client referrals, and (b) the effect on those small accounts of the change in Founders' trade allocation policy and the delayed execution of certain small privately managed accounts' trades; and (2) by falsely stating in Founders' Form ADV that it was Founders' policy to seek best execution.

Both Founders and Borgen agreed to cease and desist from any such violations. In addition, Founders agreed to be censured and to pay a civil money penalty of $50,000. Borgen, for his part, agreed to be suspended from association with any investment adviser for 180 days, pay a $150,000 civil monetary penalty, and disgorge $590,000 to clients whose accounts were adversely affected by the violative conduct, with credit being given for $85,000 which Founders previously remitted to some of those clients. (Rel. IA-1879, File No. 3-10232)

INVESTMENT ADVISER AND CEO SANCTIONED FOR MAKING FALSE REPRESENTATIONS TO CLIENTS ABOUT COMMISSIONS AND FOR FALSE ADVERTISING

On June 15, the Commission instituted proceedings charging that Owen-Joseph Asset Management Corp and William O. Foster, president of Owen-Joseph and a registered representative, defrauded certain advisory clients of Owen-Joseph by falsely representing to advisory clients that they would be charged a maximum commission rate per share for transactions. Owen-Joseph and Foster also overstated the amount of money Owen-Joseph managed for investment advisory clients and the number of its advisory clients in an advertisement. Without admitting or denying the charges, Owen-Joseph and Foster have consented to settle the proceedings. Owen-Joseph has agreed to disgorge $43,000 and Foster has agreed to pay a civil money penalty of $25,000. Foster also has agreed to be suspended from association with any investment adviser for 3 months and suspended from association with any broker-dealer for 6 months and Owen-Joseph has agreed to be censured.

According to the Commission's order, at Foster's direction, an Owen-Joseph advisory client was continually charged more than eight cents per share for its transactions even though Foster had agreed in writing to charge six to eight cents per share for trades. Owen-Joseph subsequently reimbursed this client for the excessive commissions. In amended Forms ADV filed with the Commission, Owen-Joseph represented that client transactions would be executed at a maximum commission rate of twenty cents per share. These statements were materially false in that several advisory clients were charged commissions in excess of twenty cents per share. Further, in disseminated advertising, Owen-Joseph, at Foster's direction, represented that Owen-Joseph managed assets of over $500 million and had 800 actively managed accounts. This statement was materially false because at the time the statement was made, Owen-Joseph managed approximately $93.4 million in assets and had approximately 400 actively managed accounts.

Specifically, the Commission found that Owen-Joseph willfully violated antifraud, advertising and reporting provisions of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 and Foster willfully aided and abetted and caused Owen-Joseph's violations of the antifraud and advertising provisions, as well as violated the reporting provisions of the Advisers Act by: (1) falsely representing to a client that its securities transactions would be executed at no more than eight cents per share; (2) by falsely stating in Owen-Joseph's amended Forms ADV that clients would be charged a maximum of twenty cents per share for transactions; and (3) overstating in an advertisement the amount of money Owen-Joseph managed for investment advisory clients and the number of its advisory clients. Both Owen-Joseph and Foster agreed to cease and desist from any such violations. (Rels IA-1880; 34-42945; File No. 3-10233)

SEC SUES TWELVE FOR INSIDER TRADING

On June 15, the Commission filed a civil injunctive action against twelve defendants alleging insider trading and tipping before a September 6, 1995, announcement that Bay Networks, Inc. would acquire Xylogics, Inc. According to the complaint, the defendants' illegal profits were at least $680,000

The complaint, filed in the United States District Court for the Northern District of California, alleges the following: While working for Bay Networks, Michael Hendrix learned of Bay Networks' agreement to acquire Xylogics before its public announcement. Hendrix then purchased 6,215 shares of Xylogics stock in five accounts during the two trading days before the announcement, selling nearly all of his, his wife's, and their minor children's securities to fund the purchases. Hendrix and his family made approximately $105,000 in profits from these trades. Hendrix also contacted several friends and former colleagues who quickly bought Xylogics and who, in turn, contacted others who also quickly bought. Hendrix and others who learned of the merger before its announcement directly or indirectly through him included the following nine defendants: James A. S. Lewis, Jeffrey S. Summerlin, Douglas S. Sawamura, Craig A. Larrew, San H Mai, Bich Thi Hoang, Linh Ngoc Vu, John H. Oh and Nick S Park. Hendrix, these nine defendants, and others whose trading stemmed directly or indirectly from Hendrix's recommendation, made at least $644,000 in illegal profits from their purchases of Xylogics, in violation of Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 thereunder.

The complaint further alleges that separate and apart from Hendrix, while working in Bay Networks' public relations department, Timothy Helms learned of Bay Networks' imminent acquisition of Xylogics. After learning this information, Helms telephoned his father, Raymond, who bought 3,000 shares of Xylogics stock the day before the announcement. The elder Helms made $36,000 in profits from his trading. Timothy and Raymond Helms were each named as defendants.

Two of the defendants, Lewis and Summerlin, agreed to settlement with the Commission. Without admitting or denying the Commission's allegations, each consented to the entry of a final judgment permanently enjoining him from future violations of Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 thereunder. Lewis also agreed (1) to disgorge $62,175 (plus prejudgment interest of $28,381.88), which includes his trading profits and the profits of an individual to whom he recommended the purchase of Xylogics stock, and (2) to pay a one-time civil penalty of $62,175 on his own profits and his recommendee's profits. Likewise, Summerlin agreed (1) to disgorge his insider trading profits of $39,200 (together with prejudgment interest of $17,894.16) and (2) to pay civil penalties equal to his trading profits.

The Commission thanks the NASDR for its assistance in this matter. [SEC v. Michael R. Hendrix, Douglas S. Sawamura, Jeffrey S. Summerlin, James A.S. Lewis, Craig A.

SEC FILES COMPLAINT CHARGING ONLINE TRADER WITH SECURITIES FRAUD

On June 15, the Commission filed a securities fraud case in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York against In Shig Ahn, a resident of New Jersey. The Commission's complaint charges Ahn with engaging in a fraudulent online stock trading scheme by which he obtained about $180,000 in illegal profits. According to the complaint, during a three-day period earlier this month, Ahn placed numerous cross trades between online accounts he maintained at two different brokerage firms by carefully timing his orders and routing them through an electronic communications network (commonly referred to as an ECN). The complaint alleges that Ahn wrote over $350,000 in bad checks to fund one account, and then repeatedly bought and sold three thinly-traded, over-the-counter stocks to deliberately create a loss in that account and a corresponding profit in the second account. According to the complaint, Ahn then tried to take cash out of the winning account, apparently with the intention of absconding with the money.

The Commission's complaint charges Ahn with securities fraud in violation of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and Exchange Act Rule 10b-5. It seeks a judgment permanently enjoining Ahn from violating the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws, ordering him to disgorge his ill-gotten gains with prejudgment interest, and imposing civil money penalties.

In a related matter, also on June 15, 2000, the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of New York indicted Ahn on criminal charges of securities fraud and wire fraud. [SEC v. In Shig Ahn, Case No. 00 Civ. 4416, RCC, USDC, SDNY] (LR-16595)

HOLDING COMPANY ACT RELEASES

ENTERGY CORP., ET AL.

A notice has been issued giving interested persons until July 5, 2000, to request a hearing on a proposal by Entergy Corporation (Entergy), a registered holding company, and four of its wholly owned public utility subsidiaries, Entergy Arkansas, Inc., Entergy Gulf States, Inc., Entergy Louisiana, Inc. and Entergy Mississippi, Inc. (Entergy Operating Companies). Entergy and Entergy Operating Companies request authorization through December 31, 2004, to sell, without further Commission approval, up to $40,000,000 in
