ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

M'BODJ BARRED

The Commission announced the entry of an Order instituting public administrative proceedings against Mamadou M. M'Bodj (M'Bodj), based on his previous criminal conviction for the misappropriation of $10 million of client funds. M'Bodj consented to the entry of the Order without admitting or denying the Commission's findings, except as to jurisdiction and his prior criminal conviction, which were admitted. The Order finds that in April 1998, M'Bodj was convicted of one count of wire fraud in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Ohio. The criminal information upon which M'Bodj's criminal conviction was based alleged that from August 1993, through August 1997, M'Bodj, as president and chief executive officer of Chase Global Securities, Inc., engaged in a scheme to defraud one of Chase Global's customers and obtained money from that customer by fraudulent representations. The information further alleged that M'Bodj and Chase Global entered into a Client Services Agreement with that customer, pursuant to which M'Bodj was to invest $10 million of the customer's funds. The information further alleged that contrary to his representations to the customer, M'Bodj used the funds for his own personal expenditures. The Order bars M'Bodj from association with any broker or dealer. (Rel. 34-41784; File No. 3-9983)

SETTLEMENT OFFER OF CARL RUZICKA, CPA ACCEPTED

The Commission, by consent, entered an Order Instituting Public Administrative Proceedings pursuant to Rule 102(e) of the Commission's Rules of Practice against Carl F. Ruzicka. The Order denied Ruzicka the privilege of appearing or practicing before the Commission as an accountant, with the right to reapply to the Commission after three years.

The Order stated that between May 1996 and December 1997, the president of Chicago Partnership Board (CPB), diverted more than $3.5 million in customer funds for personal and other uses. As a result of the diversions of funds, CPB failed to maintain a sufficient sum in its special reserve account and had a net capital deficiency. The Order further stated that Ruzicka engaged in improper professional conduct under Rule 102(e)(1)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, by auditing the financial statements of CPB for the period ended December 31, 1996 in a reckless manner, and by issuing a report containing an unqualified opinion that his firm had conducted its audit in accordance with Generally Accepted Auditing Standards and that CPB's financial statements conformed with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles, when in fact they did not. Ruzicka failed to obtain proper training to conduct the audit, failed to plan the audit adequately and failed to exercise professional due care. For example, Ruzicka failed to conduct effective tests of disbursements from CPB's customer account, failed to analyze disbursements from the customer account to CPB's president, failed to investigate the reason for a $2.4 million overdraft in the customer account at the end of 1996, failed to confirm customer account balances, and failed to investigate Frith's treatment of month-end net capital deficiencies at CPB. (Rel. 34-41785; AAE Rel. 1155; File No. 3-9984)
