RULES AND RELATED MATTERS

---

PROPOSED RULE 17Ad-14, ESTABLISHMENT OF DEPOSITORY ACCOUNTS BY TENDER AGENTS

The Commission has approved a release: (1) that discusses certain processing inefficiencies that occur during tender offers when a bidder does not make allowance for the use of automated depository services; and (2) that proposes for comment Rule 17Ad-14 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, which would require tender agents to establish and maintain at qualified securities depositories specially designated accounts for purposes of receiving by book-entry delivery any securities tendered by depository participants.

Comments should be submitted in triplicate to George A. Fitzsimmons, Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 450 Fifth Street, Washington, DC 20549, on or before May 27 and should refer to File No. S7-969. (Rel. 34-19678)

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Thomas V. Sjoblom at (202) 272-7379

ADOPTION OF AMENDMENTS TO RULE 10b-10

The Commission announced the adoption of amendments to Rule 10b-10 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 which specifies disclosures to be made on confirmations delivered to customers by broker-dealers in connection with transactions in securities. The amendments provide an exception from the immediate delivery requirements of the rule for transactions in shares of certain investment companies that attempt to maintain a constant net asset value. The amendments also will require disclosure to investors of certain yield and call feature information in connection with transactions in debt securities other than municipal securities. The amendments relating to the use of monthly confirmations will be effective 90 days after publication in the Federal Register. The amendments requiring disclosure of yield and call feature information will become effective January 1, 1984. (Rel. 34-19687)

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

JAMES F. NOVAK SUSPENDED

The Commission has suspended James F. Novak, of Chicago, from association with any broker or dealer for a period of six months, effective April 25. The Commission found that, in 1979, Novak, formerly a salesman in a Chicago office of Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith, violated antifraud and recordkeeping provisions in connection with his solicitation of customers to purchase shares of Harnischfeger Corporation, a manufacturer whose stock was then the object of a tender offer by Mannesmann Ag (MAG), a West German corporation.

Novak was aware that he had to obtain Merrill Lynch's approval before soliciting sales of Harnischfeger, since the stock was not on the firm's list of approved securities. Nevertheless, without obtaining that approval, Novak unreservedly recommended Harnischfeger stock to customers, and even guaranteed some of them a profit, without disclosing that the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) had brought an action to enjoin MAG's attempted takeover, and that MAG had reserved the right to withdraw its offer if the FTC was still opposing it at its expiration date. In addition, Novak falsified Harnischfeger order tickets, marking them "unsolicited," when in fact he had solicited customers' purchases. The Commission concluded that the falsification was an integral part of Novak's fraudulent scheme, designed to prevent Merrill Lynch from discovering that Novak was soliciting sales of Harnischfeger contrary to firm policy.

In affirming the sanction imposed on Novak by an administrative law judge, the Commission concluded that the sanction was fully warranted in the public interest. The Commission noted that Novak not only deliberately defrauded his customers, but compounded his offense by the deliberate deception he practiced on his employer. (Rel. 34-19660)

COMPLAINT FILED AND JUDGMENTS ENTERED AGAINST VICTOR SCHIPA, OTHERS

The New York Regional Office announced that on March 30 a complaint was filed in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York seeking a permanent injunction against Victor Schipa of Staten Island, New York, Girard Wilde & Co., Inc. and Carlisle Institutional Services, Inc., two New York corporations, alleging violations of the antifraud and extension of credit provisions of the securities laws. On April 1 Final Judgments of Permanent Injunction by Consent were entered against the defendants enjoining them from further violations of the aforementioned provisions of the securities laws, without defendants admitting or denying the allegations in the Commission's complaint.

The complaint alleges that during the period from February through October 1982, Schipa, Carlisle and Girard engaged in a fraudulent short selling and "free-riding" scheme whereby they placed orders for the sale of over $33 million in securities through a brokerage firm without owning the securities being sold and by arranging bogus stock loan transactions with another brokerage firm to settle the sales transactions. Defendants realized profits in excess of $950,000 and the brokerage firm loaning the securities in the stock loan transactions incurred losses of over $4,100,000. (SEC v. Victor Schipa, et al., 83 Civ. 2452, RLC, S.D.N.Y.). (LR-9967)

ACQUISITIONS OF SECURITIES

Companies and individuals must report to the Commission within ten days on Schedule 13D if after the acquisition of equity securities of a public company their beneficial interest therein exceeds five percent. Persons eligible to use the short form (Schedule 13G) may in lieu of filing a Schedule 13D file a Schedule 13G within 45 days after the end of the calendar year in which the person became subject to Section 13(d)(1). Companies and individuals making a tender offer must have on file at the time the tender offer commences a Schedule 14D-1.

Below is a list of recent filings of Schedules 13D and 14D, which includes the following information: Column 1 - the company purchased (top), and the name of the purchaser; Column 2 - the type of security purchased; Column 3 - the type of form filed; Column 4 - the date the transaction occurred; Column 5 - the current number of shares (in 000's) owned (top) and the current percent owned; Column 6 - the CUSIP number (top) and the prior percent owned; and Column 7 - the status of the filing, i.e., new, update, or revision.
