U.S. SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

PROCEEDINGS INSTITUTED AGAINST COMBINED EQUITY SECURITIES, INC., OTHERS

The Commission instituted public administrative proceedings, under Sections 15(b) and 19(h) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Section 203 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, against: Combined Equity Securities, Inc. (Registrant), a broker-dealer and investment adviser located in Baton Rouge, Louisiana; Combined Equities, Inc. (Equities), the parent company of Registrant; Robert G. Jackson, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Registrant; Glenn C. Bodin, Financial Principal and Secretary-Treasurer of Registrant; Edward Hardy Swyers, Assistant Secretary of Registrant; Robert L. Harger, the former President of Registrant; Benjamin F. Melanson, a former Senior Vice President of Equities and Internal Accountant of Registrant; Andrew B. Ezell, a former Vice President, Assistant General Counsel and General Counsel of Registrant; and Richard Matheny, former President of Combined Equities Services, Inc., an investment adviser which was merged into Equities.

The Order for Proceedings alleged that:

(1) From September 1977 to October 1981, Registrant, Jackson, Swyers, Bodin, Harger, Matheny, Ezell, Melanson, and Equities violated the antifraud provisions of the securities laws in the offer and sale of limited partnership interests by failing to disclose that the proceeds of purportedly separate offerings would be commingled, misapplied and utilized to pay expenses and satisfy obligations of unrelated existing entities, and that prior limited partnerships formed by Registrant and its principals could not meet and had not met their obligations as they matured; (2) Registrant, aided and abetted by Jackson, Bodin, Melanson, Harger and Ezell violated the net capital provisions of the Exchange Act; and (3) Registrant violated and Jackson, Swyers, Bodin, Harger, Matheny, Ezell, Melanson and Equities aided and abetted violations of provisions of the Exchange Act which require that the proceeds of offerings be maintained in separate agency, trustee or escrow accounts, prior to the sale of a minimum number of interests in the offering.

A hearing will be scheduled to determine whether the allegations against the respondents are true and, if so, to decide what remedial action would be appropriate.
(Rel. 34-20238)

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

FINAL ORDER ENTERED AGAINST ROBERT B. MARTIN, JR.

The Commission filed a complaint on October 4 in the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia against Robert B. Martin, Jr. alleging violations of certain antifraud provisions of the Securities Act of 1933.

The complaint alleges that Martin, as tax counsel in an offer and sale of unregistered securities, acted negligently in misrepresenting material facts to investors, in that, he was aware of certain suspicious facts and circumstances concerning the promoters and the actual operation of the trading program. These suspicious facts, circumstances and "red flags" should have caused Martin to require further information from the promoters or, failing to receive the requested information from the promoters, to withdraw his participation from the offering, and correct his previous misrepresentations.

The Court entered a Final Order to Comply with Undertaking, whereby Martin, without admitting or denying the allegations in the complaint, consented to the order requiring him to comply with his undertaking not to violate certain antifraud provisions of the Securities Act. This case relates to a civil action previously filed on September 30, 1983, SEC v. Federal Bank and Trust Co., Ltd., et al., Civil Action No. 83-8540JCP, N.D. Fla., LR-10149). (SEC v. David B. Martin, Jr., USDC DC, Civil Action No. 83-2934). (LR-10157)
