ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

PUBLIC ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS ORDERED AGAINST DAVID J. RAPAPORT

The Commission ordered public administrative proceedings under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 against David J. Rapaport, formerly associated with a registered broker-dealer in New York City as a registered representative.

The Order for Proceedings alleges that, from about March 1976 to February 1983, Rapaport may have wilfully violated the antifraud provisions of the Exchange Act, in that he misappropriated money from a number of his customers through unauthorized transfer of funds from their accounts and unauthorized sales of their securities positions. Rapaport is alleged to have made material misstatements to some of his customers regarding the status of their accounts, and in some cases to have sent them forged monthly account statements showing inaccurate information about their accounts. According to the Order, the amount of money Rapaport stole was approximately $2,300,000.

A hearing will be scheduled to determine whether the allegations against Rapaport are true, and if so, to decide what, if any, remedial sanctions would be appropriate. (Rel. 34-20445)
