ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDING SETTLED AGAINST RAYMOND CHARLES GROSS AND JAMES EUGENE HAMMONDS

The Commission announced that on February 1 it issued an Order Making Findings and Imposing Remedial Sanctions against Raymond Charles Gross (Gross) and James Eugene Hammonds (Hammonds), formerly associated with Southern California Securities, Inc. (SCSI), a broker-dealer formerly registered with the Commission. On September 13, 1995, the Commission issued an Order Instituting Public Administrative Proceeding against Gross and Hammonds, alleging that Gross and Hammonds, while associated with SCSI and other entities, engaged in the fraudulent offer and sale of securities in the form of limited partnership interests. The Commission accepted Gross' and Hammonds' offers of settlement in which they consented, without admitting or denying the Commission's findings, to the entry of an order barring them from association with any broker, dealer, investment adviser, investment company or municipal securities dealer. On November 18, 1994, Gross and Hammonds were permanently enjoined in a related matter from future violations of the antifraud provisions of the Securities Act and the Exchange Act. (Rel. 34-36802)

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS INITIATED PURSUANT TO RULE 102(e) AGAINST FORMER CALIFORNIA MICRO DEVICES CHIEF ACCOUNTING OFFICER

The Commission today announced the institution of administrative proceedings against Ronald A. Romito, former chief accounting officer of California Micro Devices Corporation (Cal Micro), pursuant to Rule 102(e) of the Commission's Rules of Practice. Romito, a CPA formerly licensed in Arizona, served as chief accounting officer and assistant secretary of Cal Micro from February 1990 until December 2, 1994.

Without admitting or denying the findings contained therein, Romito consented to the entry of an Order denying him the privilege of appearing or practicing as an accountant before the Commission. For additional details, see Litigation Release 14776. (Rel. 34-36803; AAE Rel. 757)

GARY HOLMAN RECEIVES FIVE YEAR OFFICER AND DIRECTOR BAR

The Commission announced that on January 23 the Honorable William B. Bryant of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia entered a Final Judgment and Order against Gary L. Holman, former president and chief executive officer of Homestead Holding Corporation, a defunct savings and loan. The Final Judgment permanently enjoins Holman from violations of the antifraud and reporting provisions of the federal securities laws, and enjoins Holman from acting as an officer or director of a reporting company for a period of five years. Holman consented to the Final Judgment without admitting or denying the allegations in the Commission's complaint.

The complaint alleges that in 1990, Holman caused Homestead to file annual and quarterly reports with the Commission containing false financial information. The financial statements contained in these reports failed to include adequate provisions for probable losses in Homestead's loan portfolio, causing Homestead's income reported therein to be materially overstated. For the year ended December 31, 1989, Homestead reported income before taxes of $3.4 million. This figure was overstated by approximately $2.7 million, as it omitted provisions for probable and estimable losses within Homestead's loan portfolio. [SEC v. Gary L. Holman, USDC, D.D.C., Civil Action No. 95-CV-01801] (LR-14808; AAE Rel. 756)

COMPLAINT FILED AGAINST DAVID CARMICHAEL, ANTHONY KOHL, CHRIS ADAMS AND ROBERT PUTNAM

The Commission announced that on February 1 a complaint was filed in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Ohio against David M. Carmichael (Carmichael), Anthony Kohl (Kohl), Chris Adams (Adams) and Robert Putnam (Putnam) seeking an Order of Permanent Injunction against them, as well as disgorgement and civil penalties, for violations of the registration and antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws.

The Commission's complaint alleges that from approximately 1989 through 1992, Carmichael and Kohl, as treasurer and controller of Dublin Securities Inc. (DSI), respectively, participated in a scheme to sell unregistered securities of McCoy Avionics, Inc. (McCoy) and to manipulate the price of the stock of McCoy and Dewey's Candy Company (Dewey's). The complaint also alleges that

Adams and Putnam, as brokers for DSI, participated in a scheme to manipulate the price of and sell Dewey's securities to investors without disclosing that the price of the securities was arbitrarily and artificially set by DSI and that DSI dominated and controlled the market for Dewey's securities. The complaint further alleges that Adams also participated in a similar scheme to manipulate the price of and sell McCoy securities to investors. [SEC v. David M. Carmicheal, et al., N.D. Ohio, Civil Action No. 196 CV 214] (LR-14810)
