RULES AND RELATED MATTERS

COMMISSION EXTENDS COMMENT PERIOD ON CONCEPT RELEASE RELATING TO DIFFERENT APPROACHES TO REFORMING THE OFFERING PROCESS UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933

On July 25, 1996, the Commission issued a concept release (Release No. 33-7314 [61 FR 40044]) to solicit public comment on the best means of improving the regulation of the capital formation process while maintaining or enhancing investor protection. Comment was solicited on a number of possible approaches to improving the registration process. The Commission is engaged in a broad reexamination of the regulatory framework for the offer and sale of securities under the Securities Act of 1933. The comment period with respect to the concept release was scheduled to end on September 30, 1996. In order to provide commenters additional time in which to consider the issues discussed in the concept release, the Commission has extended the comment period until October 31, 1996. FOR FURTHER INFORMATION, CONTACT: Anita Klein, Office of Chief Counsel, Division of Corporation Finance, at (202) 942-2900. (Rel. Nos. 33-7329; 34-37672; IS-1018; File No. S7-19-96)

ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

PROCEEDINGS INSTITUTED AGAINST TINA APPEGATE, DOUGLAS BURNIP, DENNIS DUNLAP, STEPHEN JORDAN, MIGUEL LUCAS AND LARRY RYAN

The Commission announced the entry of an Order Instituting Public Administrative Proceedings, Making Findings and Imposing Remedial Sanctions against Tina M. Applegate, Douglas A. Burnip, Dennis A. Dunlap, Stephen M. Jordan, Miguel A. Lucas and Larry R. Ryan (hereinafter referred to collectively as, Respondents) pursuant to Sections 15(b) and 19(h) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act). The Commission also accepted the Respondents' individual Offers of Settlement. The Respondents consented to the issuance of the Order without admitting or denying the Commission's findings.

The Order was based on the entry of Orders of Permanent Injunction against the Respondents resulting from complaints filed by the Commission. The Commission's complaints alleged that the Respondents violated Sections 5(a), 5(c), 17(a)(1), 17(a)(2) and 17(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933 (Securities Act) and Sections 10(b) and 15(a) and (c) of the Exchange Act and Rules 10b-5 and 15c1-2 thereunder. The complaints further alleged that from at least December 1992 to October 1993, the Respondents made use of the mails and means and instruments of interstate commerce to effect transactions in, and induce the purchase of, unregistered investment contracts known as liquidation deals (Liquidation Deals), of National Liquidators, Inc. (NLI), formerly an Ohio corporation and now a debtor in bankruptcy. The complaint also alleged that during the offer and sale of the Liquidation Deals, the Respondents misrepresented and omitted to disclose material facts to investors including, among other things, the existence of the Liquidation Deals, the risks associated with investing in the Liquidation Deals, the use of the investors' funds, the return on the investments and the commissions the Respondents and others would receive.

The Commission's Order bars each Respondent from associating with any broker, dealer, investment company, investment adviser and municipal securities dealer, with a right to reapply in two years with the appropriate self-regulatory agency or where there is none to the Commission. (Rel. 34-37671)

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS AGAINST LEHMAN BROTHERS INC.

The Commission today announced the institution and settlement of a public administrative proceeding against Lehman Brothers Inc. (Lehman), as successor to Shearson Lehman Brothers Inc. (Shearson). In this matter, Lehman, without admitting or denying the findings in the order, consented to the issuance of the order. The Commission's order found that Shearson failed reasonably to supervise a former stockbroker with the firm, Stanley J. Feminella, who over a two-year period caused two customers -- Consumers Union of United States, Inc. and its employee pension fund (collectively CU) -- to pay at least $1 million in undisclosed, excessive markups on their purchases of government securities.

The order makes findings that Shearson's supervisory failure stemmed from its lack of sufficient firm-wide policies and procedures reasonably designed to prevent and detect Feminella's charging of excessive markups. From November 1988 through February 1991, CU purchased through Feminella $38.5 million in government securities, in thirty-three transactions. On these transactions, ranging in amounts from $107,000 to more than $3,000,000, CU was charged markups that ranged from 3.5 percent to 4.7 percent. CU paid a total of at least $1,390,000 in markups, of which Feminella received at least $904,000.

Based on the above and other findings in the order, the Commission censured Lehman, required Lehman to cease and desist from committing or causing any violations, and committing or causing any future violations, of the customer confirmation and books and records provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and required Lehman to pay a civil penalty of $50,000.

Earlier this year, the Commission filed an action against Feminella and David W. Granston, the former chief financial officer of CU. In that case, the Commission has alleged that in addition to charging CU undisclosed, excessive markups, Feminella paid kickbacks to Granston for directing to Feminella CU's securities investment business (SEC v. Stanley J. Feminella et al., No. 96-CIV-336, AGS, SDNY; Litigation Release Nos. 14786, Jan. 18, 1996 and 14939, June 7, 1996). The litigation continues as to Feminella, the remaining defendant. (Rel. 34-37673)

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS AGAINST MICHAEL EBERLE, ROBERT HODGE, THOMAS COSTELLO, DONALD GILLILAND, THOMAS VANECHO, AND THOMAS WILLIAMSON SETTLED

The Commission announced the settlement of previously instituted administrative proceedings against Eberle, Hodge, Costello, Gilliland, VanEcho and Williamson (Respondents). The Respondents consented to the entry of an Order Making Findings and Imposing Remedial Sanctions (Order), without admitting or denying any of the findings except as to jurisdiction, which they admitted.

The Order finds that the respondents willfully violated Sections 17(a) (1), 17(a) (2) and 17(a) (3) of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and Rule 10b-5 promulgated thereunder, in their offer and sale of over $1.3 million worth of Reitz Data Communications, Inc. common stock. The Order also finds that the Respondents sold these shares to the public at artificially inflated and manipulated prices and at prices which included excessive undisclosed markups. (Rel. 34-37674)

PERMANENT INJUNCTION ENTERED AGAINST STEPHEN PARKER

The Commission announced that on August 28 a final judgment of permanent injunction and other equitable relief was entered in United States District Court in Dallas, Texas, against Stephen R. Parker (Parker). Without admitting or denying the allegations in the Commission's complaint, Parker consented to be permanently enjoined from future violations of the securities registration and anti-fraud provisions of the federal securities laws. The court also ordered Parker to pay disgorgement in the amount of $1,545,227, plus prejudgment interest of $262,072; however, the payment of all disgorgement and prejudgment interest was waived based on Parker's demonstrated financial inability to pay.

The Commission's first amended complaint alleged that the defendants, including Parker, engaged in the offer, purchase and sale of securities in the form of investment contracts involving interests in oil and gas drilling ventures in violation of the registration and antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws. The first amended complaint further alleged that in connection with the offer, purchase and sale of these securities, the defendants made material misrepresentations and omissions of material fact concerning, among other things, the risks and expected returns associated with the oil and gas investments, the costs to drill and complete oil and gas wells, and the success of prior oil and gas wells. [SEC v. Kinlaw Securities Corp., et al., 3:93-CV-2010-T, USDC, ND/TX) (LR-15039)

INSIDER TRADING ACTION FILED AGAINST MARY SHANK, KENNETH ROOP, DONALD SCHWARTZ, AND MILDRED SHANK

The Commission announced the filing of an action in the United States District Court for the Northern District of California against Mary Ann Shank, Kenneth R. Roop, Donald M. Schwartz and Mildred Shank, alleging that the defendants violated Sections 10(b) and 14(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rules 10b-5 and 14e-3 thereunder when Mary Ann Shank and Kenneth Roop tipped others to purchase, Schwartz and Mildred Shank purchased, and Schwartz caused a friend to purchase, the securities of Affymax N.V., a biotechnology company located in Palo Alto, California, in the weeks preceding the January 26, 1995 announcement of a tender offer for Affymax by Glaxo plc.

Simultaneous with the filing of the Commission's complaint, Mildred Shank consented, without admitting or denying the allegations of the complaint, to the entry of a final judgment permanently enjoining her from violating Sections 10(b) and 14(e) of the Exchange Act and Rules 10b-5 and 14e-3 thereunder, and requiring her to disgorge her profit of $8,412.50 plus $943.81 in prejudgment interest. No other defendants have settled this action. [SEC v. Mary Ann Shank, Kenneth R. Roop, Donald M. Schwartz, and Mildred Shank, Civil Action No. C-96-20757, N.D. Cal.] (LR-15040)

COURT PERMANENTLY ENJOINS WILLIAM PARKER AND FINANCIAL SERVICES OF AMERICA, INC.

The Commission announced that on September 12 the Honorable Marvin Katz of the Eastern District of Pennsylvania entered an Order of Permanent Injunction against William R. Palmer (Palmer) and Financial Services of America, Inc. (FSA).

The Order enjoins Palmer and FSA from violations of the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws and from acting as unregistered investment advisers. The Order further requires Palmer and FSA to pay disgorgement (with prejudgment interest) and civil penalties in an amount to be determined.

On September 5, Judge Katz entered an order temporarily restraining Palmer and FSA from violations of the charged provisions and freezing their assets.

The Commission's complaint alleges that since December 1992, Palmer has raised at least $1.6 million through the fraudulent offer and sale of FSA securities to investors located in Eastern Pennsylvania and New Jersey. The complaint alleges that Palmer used FSA investor money to pay his personal expenses and the promised high rates of return to investors.

Palmer and FSA consented to the Order of Permanent injunction without admitting or denying the allegations of the Commission's complaint. [SEC v. William R. Palmer and Financial Services of America, Inc., ED Pa., Civil Action No. 96-6088] (LR-15041)

FORMER ARTHUR ANDERSEN PARTNER INDICTED IN CONNECTION WITH FRAUDULENT LIMITED PARTNERSHIP OFFERING

The Commission and the United States Attorney's Office for the District of Connecticut announced that on September 10 Edmund M. Autuori (Autuori), a CPA and former partner of Arthur Andersen & Co. (Andersen), was indicted by a federal grand jury on fraud-related charges arising from his work for Colonial Realty Company (Colonial), a former real estate syndicator. According to the indictment, Autuori knowingly assisted Colonial's principals in marketing investments, including the offering of 1200 limited partnership units in the Colonial Constitution Limited Partnership (CCLP). The indictment alleged that Autuori, while engaged in these marketing efforts, knew that the investments offered by Colonial could not realize the promised returns. Autuori was charged with six counts of wire fraud, 10 counts of mail fraud and four counts of inducing people to travel in interstate commerce as part of a scheme to defraud. Autuori, if indicted, faces up to 120 years in prison and the possibility of a multi-million dollar fine.

On March 9, 1995, the Commission filed a complaint against Autuori, Jonathan N. Googel, Benjamin J. Sisti, William Candelori, Kevin P. Sisti, Peter J. Curley and Kenneth A. Zak (collectively, Defendants), alleging violations of several antifraud and securities registration provisions of the federal securities laws in connection with Colonial's offering of CCLP units. During the offering period, CCLP interests totaling more than $30 million were purchased by over 700 investors residing in 28 states and the District of Columbia. Autuori is the sole remaining defendant in the Commission's civil action. [U.S. v. Autuori, No. 3:96CR161-ALL, D.Conn.] (LR-15043)
