RULES AND RELATED MATTERS

ADOPTION OF FORM N-SAR; AMENDMENTS TO FORMS N-1A AND N-2 PROPOSED FOR COMMENT

The Commission is adopting Form N-SAR, a new semi-annual reporting form for registered investment companies, and withdrawing Forms N-1R, N-5R, N-30A-2, N-30A-3 and 2-MD, the annual reporting forms now used by most registered investment companies. The Commission is also adopting rules that temporarily suspend the quarter filing obligations of investment companies and transferring the contents of Form N-1Q, the quarterly report form for management investment companies, to Form N-SAR on a temporary basis. Comment is requested on whether these actions should be taken on a permanent basis. (Rel. 34-21633)

The Commission is also proposing for public comment amendments to Forms N-1A and N-2, the registration statement forms for open-end and closed-end investment companies, respectively. The proposed amendments are intended to conform the method prescribed in those forms for calculating a registrant's portfolio turnover rate to the method prescribed in Form N-SAR for calculating that rate. (Rel. 33-6563)

Comments should be submitted in triplicate before March 5 to John Wheeler, Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 450 Fifth Street, NW, Washington, DC 20549. Comments for Rel. 34-21633 should refer to File S7-1-85; Rel. 33-6563 to File No. S7-2-85. All submissions will be available for public inspection in the Commission's Public Reference Room.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

HEARING ORDERED FOR ADVISER REGISTRANT

The Commission ordered public administrative proceedings under Section 203 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 to determine whether the application of First State Financial, Inc. of Tulsa, Oklahoma, for registration as an investment adviser filed November 16, 1984, should be denied.

The Order for Proceedings alleged that: a previous Commission order, dated January 8, 1979, revoking the investment adviser registration of First State and barring its president from being associated with an investment adviser, has been and is still in effect; and in October 1981, August 1982 and May 1983, the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. filed complaints against First State, a registered broker-dealer, for which First State, as well as associated persons, were censured and fined.

The hearing was ordered to determine whether: the Order's allegations are true; the application for registration should be denied, granted or granted contingent upon a subsequent showing by First State that no person associated with it is subject to a statutory disqualification unless the Commission has consented to such association under Rule 29 of the Rules of Practice; and any remedial action is appropriate in the public interest. (Rel. IA-948)

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

COMPLAINT NAMES JANUS FINANCIAL GROUP, INC., OTHERS

The Los Angeles Regional Office filed a complaint on December 5, 1984 seeking permanent injunctive relief against Janus Financial Group, Inc., Michael L. Mathis (M. Mathis), Jack D. Mathis (J. Mathis), Robert R. Wine and Richard J. Boren from violations of the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws, and against Janus, M. Mathis, J. Mathis and Wine from violations of the broker-dealer registration provisions of the Exchange Act.

The complaint alleges that the defendants raised over $13 million from over 500 investors through the offer and sale of securities in Janus' medical factoring program which purported to involve the purchase of insurance claims from doctors at a discount and the subsequent collection of the full face value of those claims from insurance companies; investors were to receive returns of 6% to 10% per quarter on their investments; and Janus medical factoring program was non-existent.

Simultaneous with the filing of the complaint, Boren consented to a Permanent Injunction without admitting or denying the complaint's allegations. (SEC v. Janus Financial Group, Inc., et al., USDC CDCA, Civil Action No. 84-9291 JMI [Kx]). (LR-10650)
