COMMISSION ANNOUNCEMENTS

COMMISSIONER SCHAPIRO TO TESTIFY

Commissioner Mary Schapiro is scheduled to testify before the House Committee on Banking, Finance and Urban Affairs on September 28, 1993, at 10:00 a.m., in the Room 2128 of the Rayburn House Office Building. The subject matter is concerning the securities aspects of the North American Free Trade Agreement.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

COMMISSION SUSTAINS NASD ACTION AGAINST JOHN HARMANN, SHIRLEY GARRITY, DAVID GREEN, GENE HOICHEVAR AND GUY LABONE

The Commission has sustained NASD disciplinary action taken against John G. Harmann, formerly a compliance officer of R.B. Marich, Inc., a former NASD member firm, and Shirley A. Garrity, David C. Green, Gene A. Hochevar, and Guy R. LaBone, former salespeople at R.B. Marich. The NASD censured Harmann, suspended him for 90 days, and required him to requalify by examination as a principal following the suspension. The NASD censured Garrity, Green, Hochevar, and LaBone, fined each $5,000, and suspended each for 5 days, with the requirement that each requalify by examination following the suspension.

The Commission found that Harmann was responsible for the firm's fraudulent markups in the sales of two penny stocks in which the firm controlled the markets. The Commission found that the salespeople charged customers unfair prices in those stocks. The Commission found that the salespeople had adequate indications that the prices they were charging were too high. Among other things, the gross commissions on the sales in question represented large percentages of the total price paid by customers. (Rel. 34-32932)

COMMISSION MODIFIES NASD FINDINGS OF VIOLATION AGAINST FIRST HONOLULU SECURITIES, INC. AND CHARLES JACOBSON

The Commission has modified the NASD's finding of violation against First Honolulu Securities, Inc. of Honolulu, Hawaii, and Charles Jacobson, its former chairman and chief executive officer. The NASD had found that First Honolulu, through Jacobson, had charged excessive markups in the sale of corporate debt instruments and municipal securities, in violation of Article III, Sections 1 and 4 of the NASD's Rules of Fair Practice and Section G-30 of the Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board's Rules. The NASD had censured Jacobson and First Honolulu and fined them $12,900, jointly and severally. The Commission sustained findings of violation for markups above five percent. While the Commission noted that markups below even four percent may be excessive, it set aside the NASD's findings of violation for the markups at issue in this proceeding that were below five percent, since it may not have been clear in 1990, when the violative transactions occurred, that such markups might have been excessive. It consequently reduced the fine to $7,400 and sustained the orders of censure. (Rel. 34-32933)

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

The Commission announced that on September 14 a complaint was filed in the Northern District of California seeking injunctive relief against Nancy Brandstatter (Brandstatter), formerly a registered representative of a registered securities broker dealer.

The complaint alleges that from September 1990 through March 1992 Brandstatter engaged in a scheme to defraud seven of her customers of approximately $136,557. Brandstatter's conduct with respect to two of her customers consisted of obtaining their approval to have checks issued to her from their account, representing to them that she would use the proceeds to invest in securities. Instead of purchasing the securities, Brandstatter converted the funds to her own use. With respect to the other five customers, Brandstatter executed unauthorized sales of mutual funds in their securities accounts, obtained possession of the checks from such sales, and altered such checks to make them payable to herself without the knowledge or consent of the customers.

Simultaneous with the filing of the complaint and without admitting or denying the Commission's allegations, Brandstatter consented to the entry of a permanent injunction prohibiting future violations of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 [15 U.S.C. Section 77q(a)], and Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 [15 U.S.C. Section 78j(b)] and Rule 10b-5 promulgated thereunder [17 C.F.R. Section 240.10b-5]. [SEC v. Nancy Brandstatter, Civil Action No. C-93-3413, TEH, N.D. Cal.] (LR-13801)
