U.S. SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

STOP ORDER PROCEEDINGS INSTITUTED AGAINST CHATFIELD OIL & GAS, LTD.

The Commission announced on May 21, 1981 the issuance of an Order Fixing Time and Place of Public Hearing pursuant to Section 8(d) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, to determine whether a Stop Order should be issued suspending the effectiveness of the registration statement filed by Chatfield Oil & Gas, Ltd., a Colorado corporation. The hearing has been set for 10:00 a.m., the 2nd day of June, 1981, at the Denver Regional Office, 410 17th St., Denver, CO 80202.

The Commission initiated the proceeding based on staff allegations that untrue, false and misleading statements were made in the registration statement concerning management's experience in the oil and gas area, the registrant's oil and gas interests and other matters. The alleged untrue, false and misleading nature of such statements was indicated, in part, by inconsistent statements made at a "due diligence" meeting on April 27, 1981, conducted by the underwriter, J. Daniel Bell & Co., Inc. of Denver, Colorado. (Rel. 33-6318)

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

JAMES ROBERT MEEK ENJOINED

The Fort Worth Regional Office announced that on May 26 the Honorable Ralph C. Thompson of the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Oklahoma, entered an order permanently enjoining James Robert Meek from further violations of the antifraud provisions of the securities laws. J.R. Meek consented to the entry of the order without admitting or denying the allegations in the Commission's complaint.

The complaint, filed on February 24, 1981, against J. R. Meek, Maxwell E. Meek and Major Improvement Corporation alleges that Guaranty Trust Company of Ponca City, Oklahoma, issued passbook savings accounts and certificates of deposit to investors in various states. The complaint further alleges that Maxwell E. Meek was responsible for Guaranty's day-to-day operations, J. R. Meek was the president of Guaranty, and Major Improvement was Maxwell E. Meek's wholly-owned corporation.

Specifically, the complaint alleges that the Meeks made material misrepresentations and omitted to state material facts, concerning, among other things, that: Guaranty's funds, bank accounts, brokerage accounts, and credit were used for the benefit of the Meeks and Major Improvement; and, Guaranty was in a precarious financial condition. These material misrepresentations and omissions occurred, the complaint alleged, when Guaranty sold its certificates of deposit and passbook savings accounts to the public; and when Guaranty purchased and sold, ostensibly for its own investment portfolio, certain government and other securities. (SEC v. James Robert Meek, et al., WD/OKLA/OKLA CITY DIV., CIV-81-227T). (LR-9364)

KENNETH G. HARPLE, OTHERS ENJOINED

The Atlanta Regional Office and the Miami Branch Office announced that on May 22 a Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction was entered against Kenneth G. Harple, Francis B. Miller, William J. Boecklen and Robert K. Michaels, based on their consents, without admitting or denying the allegations in the Commission's complaint. The final judgment of permanent injunction enjoined the defendants from further aiding and abetting violations of the periodic reporting provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the antifraud provisions of the Securities Act of 1933 and the Exchange Act. The Commission's complaint, which was filed on May 7, 1981, alleged that Modular Computer Systems, Inc., a company whose securities are registered pursuant to the Exchange Act, filed false and misleading annual, quarterly and current reports with the Commission which materially misstated its reported financial condition and earnings per share. In 1979, Modular Computer restated its financial statements for the years 1973 through 1979. The complaint alleged that the defendants aided and abetted Modular Computer in filing false and misleading periodic reports with the Commission and disseminated false and misleading information to the investing public. (SEC v. Kenneth G. Harple, et al., S.D. Fla., Civil Action No. 81-6256-Civ-WMH). (LR-9365)

CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

JOHNEY B. KEARNEY AND RICHARD S. BERRY SENTENCED IN CENTURY MORTGAGE CO., LTD. CASE

The Denver Regional Office announced that the Honorable David K. Winder, District Judge for the District of Utah, sentenced Johney B. Kearney of Los Angeles, California, and formerly of Salt Lake City, Utah and Phoenix, Arizona, on April 21, and Richard S. Berry, formerly a practicing attorney in Phoenix, Arizona, on May 15, in the Century Mortgage Co., Ltd. case.

On February 9, 1981, after one week of jury trial, Kearney pled guilty to two counts and Berry to one count of conspiracy to transport in interstate commerce money obtained by fraud. Judge Winder imposed five years in prison followed by five years probation and restitution on Kearney and three years in prison on Berry. A grand jury indicted them, along with three others, on June 19, 1980 for securities fraud, mail fraud, and transportation in interstate commerce of money obtained by fraud in connection with the sale of Century Mortgage Co., Ltd. capital notes to residents of Utah.

Berry is currently serving a six-month prison sentence for another unrelated conviction in Arizona. Kearney will commence serving his sentence on August 20, 1981. (U.S. v. Johney B. Kearney, et al., D. Utah, CR-80-83W). (LR-9363)
