ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

PROCEEDINGS INSTITUTED AGAINST STEPHANIE HIBLER

The Commission announced that it has instituted public administrative proceedings under Sections 15(b) and 19(h) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 against Stephanie Hibler, a registered representative residing in Los Angeles, California.

The Order for Public Proceedings alleges that on October 14, 1981, a criminal information was filed in the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California charging Hibler with willful violations of the antifraud provisions of the Exchange Act in connection with the purchase of Westamerica Automotive Corporation stock. Hibler pled guilty to the information and, on December 7, 1981, she was sentenced by the Court.

In addition, the Order alleges that from November 1976 until the present, Hibler willfully violated the antifraud provisions of the Exchange Act in connection with the purchase and sale of Westamerica common stock. The Order alleges that Hibler, among other things, induced some of her customers to purchase shares of Westamerica common stock without disclosing that she had an arrangement with an agent of Westamerica whereby she would receive money for purchases of Westamerica stock made by her customers.

A hearing will be scheduled to determine whether the allegations against Hibler are true and, if so, to decide what remedial action would be appropriate. (Rel. 34-18786)

PROCEEDINGS INSTITUTED AGAINST BORST INVESTMENT PLANNING SERVICES, INC. AND THOMAS F. BORST

The Commission announced that it has instituted public administrative proceedings under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 against Borst Investment Planning Services, Inc. (Registrant), a broker-dealer and investment adviser located in Albany, Georgia, and Thomas F. Borst (Borst), a resident of Albany, Georgia and president and sole shareholder of Registrant.

The Order for Proceedings alleges that from about December 1977 to the present Registrant and Borst willfully violated and willfully aided and abetted violations of the antifraud provisions of the Securities Act of 1933 and the Exchange Act. The Order further alleges that Registrant, aided and abetted by Borst, willfully violated various recordkeeping requirements of the Exchange Act and the Advisers Act and the record retention requirements of the Exchange Act.

The Order provides that a hearing be held to determine what, if any, remedial action may be necessary. (Rel. 34-18789)

PUBLIC PROCEEDINGS INSTITUTED AGAINST PAGEL, INC., JACK W. PAGEL AND DUANE A. MARKUS

The Commission has ordered public administrative proceedings under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 against Pagel, Inc., Jack W. Pagel (J. Pagel) and Duane A. Markus. J. Pagel is the president and sole shareholder of Pagel, Inc., a registered broker-dealer located in Minneapolis, Minnesota, and Markus is an executive vice-president and head trader.

The Order for Public Proceedings alleges, among other things, that Pagel, Inc. J. Pagel and Markus dominated, controlled and manipulated the market for the common stock of FilmTec Corporation, a Minnesota-based technology company. The Order also alleges that Pagel, Inc., J. Pagel and Markus, while participating and being financially interested in the distribution of FilmTec Corporation common stock, bid for and purchased the common stock and represented to customers that the common stock was being offered at the market when a market did not exist other than the one made, created and controlled by Pagel, Inc. The Order further alleges that Pagel, Inc. failed to accurately make and keep current certain required records, and J. Pagel and Markus aided and abetted this failure in that they utilized, and permitted to be utilized, undisclosed nominee accounts to conceal the true beneficial ownership of the common stock of FilmTec Corporation.

A hearing will be scheduled to determine whether the allegations against Pagel, Inc., J. Pagel and Markus are true, and if so, to decide what, if any, remedial action would be appropriate. (Rel. 34-18791) (See LR-9689)

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

CIVIL INJUNCTIVE ACTION FILED AGAINST PAGEL, INC., OTHERS

The Chicago Regional Office announced that on June 7 a complaint was filed in the U.S. District Court for the District of Minnesota seeking permanent injunctions against Pagel, Inc., Jack W. Pagel (J. Pagel), and Duane A. Markus alleging violations and aiding and abetting violations of the antifraud and recordkeeping provisions of the federal securities laws, and against Francis W. Canfield, Michael J. Gunderson and Burton E. Lee alleging aiding and abetting violations of recordkeeping provisions of the federal securities laws. J. Pagel is the president and sole shareholder of Pagel, Inc., a registered broker-dealer located in Minneapolis, Minnesota, and Markus is an executive vice-president and head trader. Canfield, Gunderson and Lee are all customers of Pagel, Inc. All of the defendants reside in or around Minneapolis, Minnesota.

The complaint alleges, among other things, that Pagel, Inc., J. Pagel and Markus dominated, controlled and manipulated the market for the common stock of FilmTec Corporation, a Minnesota-based technology company. The complaint further alleges that Pagel, Inc., J. Pagel and Markus, while participating and being financially interested in the distribution of FilmTec Corporation common stock, bid for and purchased the common stock and represented to customers that the common stock was being offered at the market when a market did not exist other than the one made, created and controlled by Pagel, Inc. The complaint also alleges that Pagel, Inc. failed to accurately make and keep current certain required records and the other defendants aided and abetted this failure in that they utilized, and permitted to be utilized, undisclosed nominee accounts to conceal the true beneficial ownership of FilmTec Corporation common stock. (SEC v. Pagel, Inc., et al., Civil Action No. 4-82 Civil 799). (LR-9689) (See Administrative Proceeding, Release 34-18791)

MOTION FOR REAPPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL OFFICER FILED NAMING FIRST COLORADO INVESTMENTS & SECURITIES, INC.

The Denver Regional Office announced that on June 2 the Commission filed a Motion for Reappointment of the Special Officer in the U.S. District Court for the District of Colorado naming First Colorado Investments & Securities, Inc. (First Colorado), a Denver, Colorado brokerage firm.

The motion and supporting documents allege that the Special Officer previously appointed by the Court and the accounting firm retained by the Special Officer were misled, the objective of the Special Officer was not fulfilled and the Court's Order was, in essence, frustrated, and that the Commission is entitled to the reappointment of the Special Officer (who will be paid by First Colorado) to: (1) take charge of First Colorado's books and records; (2) marshal all its assets, hire personnel, if necessary, and to operate its business; (3) conduct an investigation into the currentness and accuracy of its books and records, particularly in view of alleged forgeries directed by officials of First Colorado of its customers' signatures, both on stock certificates and stock powers; (4) discuss his findings with the Commission and consult with officials of SIPC to determine whether to install a trustee under Section 5(a)(2) of the Securities Investor Protection Act of 1970; and (5) retain an independent accounting firm to assist the Special Officer in conducting his inquiry.

A hearing on the Commission's Motion has been scheduled before the Honorable Zita Weinshienk at 9:00 A.M. on June 30, 1982. (SEC v. First Colorado Investments & Securities, Inc., USDC, Colorado, Civil Action File No. 82-Z-235). (LR-9690)
