CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

U.S. SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

ANTHONY MATERIA PRELIMINARILY ENJOINED; COMPLAINT AMENDED; TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER SIGNED

The New York Regional Office (NYRO) announced that on October 4 the Honorable Charles L. Brieant, U.S. District Judge for the Southern District of New York, signed an Order of Preliminary Injunction and Freeze of Assets against Anthony Materia (A. Materia), a former employee of Bowne of New York City, Inc. A. Materia was preliminarily enjoined from violating Sections 10(b) and 14(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rules 10b-5 and 143-e thereunder (the antifraud provisions). The Order also prevents A. Materia from dissipating or disposing of any assets in connection with his purchases of the securities of Evans-Aristocrat Industries, Inc.

Additionally, the NYRO announced that on October 19, it filed an Amended Complaint in which the Commission alleges that A. Materia also purchased or caused to be purchased the securities of four additional public companies which were the targets of tender offers on the basis of material nonpublic information he misappropriated in his capacity as a Bowne employee. The complaint also alleges that A. Materia conveyed material nonpublic information concerning proposed tender offers to his wife, C. Materia, who purchased the securities of three of the companies. The complaint seeks to enjoin the Materias from further violations of the antifraud provisions of Section 10(b) and 14(e) of the Exchange Act, a disgorgement of approximately $215,000 in profits and other equitable relief. On October 19 Judge Brieant signed a Temporary Restraining Order and an Order to Show Cause (Orders). The Orders provide that C. Materia is temporarily restrained from violating the antifraud provisions of the Exchange Act, and further restrain the disposition of all assets of the Materias relating to their transactions in any securities pending a hearing on the Commission's application for a preliminary injunction against A. Materia and his wife, Concetta Materia. (SEC v. Anthony Materia and Concetta Materia, 82 Civil 6225, S.D.N.Y., CLB). (LR-9789)
