SUMMARY OF MEETING:

The meeting of the F15.49 Subcommittee was held November 29, 2000 at ASTM headquarters in West Conshohocken, Pennsylvania. The meeting was called to address comments made by subcommittee members on the proposed draft standard. The meeting was called to order by Merle Stoner, elected Chairman for the F15.49 subcommittee. Self-introductions were made and the minutes from the last meeting were accepted. Katharine Morgan of ASTM explained where the group was in the development process of the standard and the next step in the acceptance process for provisional standards.

The group then reviewed each section of the proposed draft standard and made revisions as agreed. With the exception of the false alarm test procedure for surface and subsurface, the document was revised and will be prepared for balloting. A member of the subcommittee will submit a false alarm test procedure for surface and subsurface alarms to the Chairman for distribution. The members will have several weeks to comment on the proposal before its inclusion in the draft standard. The standard will then be sent out for ballot among the subcommittee members.
