

CPSA 6
2/27/95
Products

MEETING LOG

DATE OF MEETING: September 19, 1995

SUBJECT OF MEETING: Relationship between the Federal Hazardous Substances Act and California's Proposition 65.

PERSONS ATTENDING:

1. Harleigh Ewell, Attorney, Office of the General Counsel, Consumer Product Safety Commission (301)504-0980.
2. Eric Rubel, CPSC General Counsel (301)504-0980.
3. Jeffrey B. Margulies, counsel to Cotter & Company, from the law firm of Haight, Brown & Bonesteel, 1620 26th Street, Suite 4000 North, Santa Monica, CA 90406 (310)449-6000.
4. John F. Moynihan, attorney, Cotter & Company, 2740 N. Clybourn Avenue, Chicago, IL 60614-1088 (312)975-2700.
5. Mary Nicholson, attorney, National Paint and Coatings Association.

LOCATION: Room 711, East-West Towers.

LOG PREPARED BY: Harleigh Ewell, CPSC/OGC HE
Sept. 22, 1995

SUMMARY OF MEETING: Mr. Margulies requested the meeting. He represents Cotter & Company in litigation in California in which they are arguing that the Federal Hazardous Substances Act preempts California's Proposition 65. The meeting began with a discussion of issues relating to this argument. Mr. Margulies then indicated that he may write the General Counsel to request an advisory opinion about some of these issues.

HW