

CPSA 6 (b)(1) Cleared

No Mfrs/PrvtLbrs of

Products Identified

Excepted by _____

Firms Notified,

Comments Processed.

MAY - 1 1998

LOG OF MEETING

SUBJECT: Child-Resistant Unit Dose Packaging

DATE OF MEETING: April 28, 1998

PLACE: Philadelphia Airport Hilton

LOG ENTRY SOURCE: Suzanne Barone, Ph.D., Pharmacologist

COMMISSION REPRESENTATIVE: Suzanne Barone, PH.D.

NON-COMMISSION REPRESENTATIVE: Attendees of Conference

SUMMARY OF MEETING:

The 6th Annual National Symposium on Patient Compliance was sponsored by the Healthcare Compliance Packaging Council. A copy of the program is attached. The program included a panel discussion of various issues related to compliance packaging. Suzanne Barone participated on the panel and answered several questions related to child-resistant unit dose package testing.

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY
1998 MAY -1 P 2:00
EHEH

sz

✓

“Compliance Packaging — Issues and Answers”
6th Annual National Symposium on Patient Compliance
Healthcare Compliance Packaging Council
April 28-29, 1998
Philadelphia Airport Hilton, Philadelphia PA

Final Program

Tuesday, April 28

- 8:00 a.m. Breakfast & Registration
Sponsored by Packaging Coordinators, Inc.
- 9:00 a.m. Welcoming Remarks, Ed Hancock, HCPC Chairman, President, Pharmaceutical Division, Anderson Packaging, Inc.
- 9:15 a.m. Official Greetings, Herb Vederman, Deputy Mayor of Philadelphia (Invited)
- 9:30 a.m. Preventing Hospital Medication Errors, Lucian L. Leape, MD, Health Policy Analyst, Harvard University
- 10:15 a.m. Morning Break
Sponsored by Hueck Foils L.L.C.
- 11:15 a.m. Equipment & Materials Used in the Manufacture of Compliance Packaging, Kevin J. Carter, Technical Service-Pharmaceutical Blister Films, Klöckner Pentaplast
- 12:00 p.m. Lunch
Sponsored by Anderson Packaging, Inc.
- 1:00 p.m. Breakout Sessions:
- (1) The Child Resistant/Senior Friendly Challenge, Richard Ward, Director of Consumer Product Testing, Perritt Labs
 - (2) Assessing the Use of Compliance Packaging in Women’s Health and HIV Therapies, David Bloom, PharmaQuest Corporation

2:00 p.m. Breakout Sessions:

- (1) Compliance Packaging and Elderly Populations, Michael D. Murray, Associate Professor, Purdue University School of Pharmacy
- (2) The HCPC Seal-of-Approval Program: Criteria, Current Users, and Packages, Ed Hancock, President, Pharmaceutical Division, Anderson Packaging and Dennis Worthen, Director, Pharmacy Affairs, Procter & Gamble

2:45 p.m. Afternoon Break

Sponsored by VPI Mirrex Corporation

3:00 p.m. Legal Considerations of Compliance Packaging, Kenneth Baker, Vice President & General Counsel, Pharmacists Mutual Insurance Co.

4:00 p.m. Compliance Packaging — Issues & Answers, A Panel Session Discussion
Moderator: Ed Hancock, HCPC Chairman, President, Pharmaceutical Division, Anderson Packaging, Inc.

Invited Panelists:

- (1) Suzanne Barone, Ph.D., Project Manager, Poison Prevention, U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission
- (2) David Bloom, The PharmaQuest Corporation
- (3) Hugh Lockhart, Ph.D., Professor, Michigan State University School of Packaging
- (4) Cynthia Struk, R.N., M.S.N., Director of Managed Care and Special Programs, Visiting Nurse Association of Cleveland
- (5) Dennis Worthen, Ph.D., Director, Pharmacy Affairs, Procter & Gamble

5:00 p.m. Presentation of the HCPC's 1997 Compliance Package of the Year Award

5:15 p.m. Reception and Exhibits

Sponsored by PACO Pharmaceutical Services, Inc.

Wednesday, April 29, 1998

- 8:00 a.m. Breakfast
Sponsored by Klöckner Pentaplast
- 9:00 a.m. Welcoming Remarks, Dan Gerner, HCPC Vice Chairman, President, Packaging Coordinators, Inc.
- 9:15 a.m. Compliance Packaging and Clinical Trials, Martin Jeiven, Jeiven Pharmaceutical Consulting
- 10:00 a.m. Compliance Packaging at a Retail Pharmacy, Paul B. White, R.Ph. President,
PBW Pharmacy, Medicine Shoppes
- 10:45 a.m. Morning Break
Sponsored by Reed-Lane, Inc.
- 11:00 a.m. Compliance Packaging: Markets and Demographics, Kathleen Blankenhorn,
Senior Business Manager, IMS
- 12:00 p.m. Closing Remarks & Adjourn,
Ed Hancock, HCPC Chairman, President, Pharmaceutical Division, Anderson
Packaging, Inc.