Dear Dick,

Assuming that you have left Washington or are about to arrive in Teheran, I have taken the liberty of asking that this be passed to you there.

We have a favor to ask of you. Rod, Charley, George, and I, would probably each like to get a signed picture of you to keep but we have decided that such a request would be excessive. May we ask you only, then, to send us one to the group which we will hang in back in the vault in perpetuity, so to speak?

On behalf of all of us here, we shall miss you and we all are proud of having been able to work for you. The very best to you and your family.

Yours,
