

(b) The accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden (hours and cost) of the collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

(c) Ways we could enhance the quality, utility and clarity of the information to be collected; and

(d) Ways we could minimize the burden of the collection of the information on the respondents, such as through the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology.

OMB Control Number: 1035-000X.

Type of review: New collection.

Title: Trust Funds for Tribes and Individual Indians, 25 CFR 115.

Brief Description of collection: This information collection is used to process deposits, investments, and distribution of monies held in trust by the Special Trustee for individual Indians and tribal governments and in the administration of these accounts. The respondents submit information in order to gain or retain a benefit, namely, access to funds held in trust. This collection covers 12 different kinds of submissions with the burden ranging from 1/2 hour to 16 1/2 hours.

Respondents: Individual tribal members or tribes who wish to initiate some activity on their account.

Number of Respondents: 285,500.

Estimated Time per Response: Varies from 1/2 hour to 16 1/2 hours.

Estimated Number of Responses Annually: 677,675.

Frequency of Response: As needed.

Total Annual Burden to Respondents: 472,214 hours.

Please note that an agency may not sponsor or request, and an individual need not respond to, a collection of information unless it has a valid OMB Control Number. OMB has up to 60 days to make a decision on the submission for renewal, but may make a decision after 30 days. Therefore, to receive the best consideration of your comments, you should submit them closer to 30 days than 60 days.

This regulation requires an information collection under the Paperwork Reduction Act. The existing OMB approval was originally submitted and cleared by the Bureau of Indian Affairs under OMB Control Number 1076-0154; it will be allowed to expire because the new collection of information will be assumed by the Office of the Special Trustee for American Indians. The information required is necessary for account holders to obtain and or retain benefits from Individual Indian Money (IIM) and tribal trust fund accounts. The collection of information hourly burden varies from 1/2 hour to 16 1/2 hours, depending upon the specific need of the account holder and the form used for that purpose. The table below explains the collection activity.
