

Micro Report Series Description

Series Mnemonic	BORA
Series Name	Report of Borrowings from the Federal Reserve
Starting and Ending Date	November 22, 1988 Continuing
Frequency	First business day following the as-of-date

Reporting Panel

The Report of Borrowings from the Federal Reserve (BORA) is collected daily from all Federal Reserve Banks (data are consolidated for head offices and branches) on loans outstanding as of the close of business each business day, including late loans, if any.

Major Changes to Reporting Panel

None

Data Mode

Daily

Data Availability

Daily

Major Series Changes

None

Public Release

Borrowings data, along with data received from other sources are used to prepare the L.6.1 and H.4.1 releases and are included in various publications.

Confidentiality

Microdata are confidential.