

College of Education Alumni Honored

The University awards were presented at the Alumni Awards dinner on April 21, 2006. Two College of Education alumni were honored that evening.

Mr. Dan Christie (B.S. '68), owner of the Collin County Land Company, was awarded UNT's Green Glory Award. This award is the University's acknowledgement of individuals whose assistance to UNT has enabled the University to provide a standard of excellence in its endeavors. Dan shared, "The friendships that began while I was a UNT student and continue until today are truly one of the richest blessings of my life. I dearly love this University. I desire to give a portion of myself and my resources back to this institution. I am sincerely grateful for this award, and I appreciate this special recognition."

Dr. Joneel Harris (B.B.A. '66, M.S. '75, Ph.D. '99), along with her husband, Richard Harris, received the Ulys Knight Spirit Award. This award is given to an individual or group that has made noteworthy efforts to sustain spirit among the UNT family. Dr. Harris said, "Collectively, we have spent 99 overlapping years with the University as students, employees and supporters. We have enjoyed a variety of wonderful, long-standing relationships with the University community."

College of Education alumni were also honored at the Alumni Awards Luncheon on April 21, 2006. The following alumni were chosen to represent their departments and were recognized at the luncheon:
