

Wall of Honor and Scholarship Reception

The College of Education (COE) recognized donors and scholarship recipients at the annual Wall of Honor and Scholarship Reception on Sunday, April 30. COE donors whose cumulative contributions through 2005 reached at least $5,000 are recognized with a tile on the College of Education Wall of Honor. Donors who recently earned new or larger tiles were invited to the reception. In addition, sponsors and recipients of general College of Education and Teacher Education and Administration scholarships were invited. College administrators, faculty and staff welcomed the opportunity to visit with and honor these good friends of the College of Education.
