

Scholarship Resources

Websites are listed for reference and may offer additional links to helpful information. Sources may be affiliated with a university, organization, corporation or other entity. Inquiries concerning information presented should be directed to that source. The University of North Texas and the University of North Texas System do not necessarily endorse the sites, information and/or links to other sites. This is not an exhaustive list, but rather a sample of possible sites of interest.

The list of scholarship searches below may be used to search for a wide variety of scholarships offered by both public and private entities. Searches may be conducted based on a particular religion, geographical location, race/ethnicity, national origin and many additional identifiers.

Students are encouraged to discuss scholarship opportunities with appropriate counselors and advisors at a given high school, college or university. There may be scholarships offered by a specific college, school or academic major that a qualified student might apply for.

Students are encouraged to be prepared to meet advance deadlines and might consider applying for a scholarship a second time if a scholarship is not initially granted.
