Course Evaluation Methods

This course will utilize the following instruments to determine student grades and proficiency of the learning outcomes for the course.

Attendance – Faithful class attendance is crucial, since lectures and discussions complement the readings, rather than duplicate them. After the fourth missed class, each additional unexcused absence will result in a five-point reduction from your final attendance grade in the course.

Participation – Participation is an important component of this class. Lectures are interactive and approximately thirty minutes of each class will be set aside for discussion of essays, documents, maps, paintings, and film clips. I encourage you to participate both by answering my questions and by asking me your own. The quality of your comments is more important than the quantity.

Written Assignments

For students taking this course for American History core curriculum credit

To improve the quality of class discussion, you will write three 2-page response papers in this course. You will write one on Reséndez's A Land So Strange, a second on Johnson's Revolution in Texas, and a third on an assigned reading of your choice from Haynes's and Wintz's Major Problems In Texas History.

For students taking this course as an upper-level elective

Written assignments constitute fifty percent of your overall grade in the course. To improve the quality of class discussion, you will write three 2-page response papers in this course. You will write one on Reséndez's A Land So Strange, a second on Johnson's Revolution in Texas, and a third on an assigned reading of your choice from Haynes's and Wintz's Major Problems In Texas History. A 10-page research paper on a topic of your choice related to Texas History is due by the end of the exam period. Papers should be typed, double-spaced, and include footnotes and an annotated bibliography describing the content and utility of the sources you consulted for your paper. The research must include primary and secondary printed sources, not simply on-line materials.

Exams – Two equally weighted exams will consist of two essay questions that will ask you to support an argument with evidence from your readings and class notes. The final exam will be given during the last week of classes and is not cumulative. You will receive a review sheet with potential essay questions prior to each exam.

University Policies and Procedures

Students with Disabilities (ADA Compliance):

The University of North Texas at Dallas makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking accommodations must first register with the Disability Services Office (DSO) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the DSO will provide you with an accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding your specific needs in a course. You may request accommodations at any time, however, DSO notices of accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of accommodation for every semester and must meet/communicate with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. Students are strongly encouraged to deliver letters of accommodation during faculty office hours or by appointment. Faculty members have the authority to ask students to discuss such letters during their designated office hours to protect the privacy of the student. For additional information see the Disability Services Office website at http://www.untdallas.edu/disability. You may also contact them by phone at 972-338-1777; by email at UNTDdisability @untdallas.edu or at Founders Hall, room 204. (UNTD Policy 7.004)

CoursEval Policy:

Student's evaluations of teaching effectiveness is a requirement for all organized classes at UNT Dallas. This short survey will be made available to you at the end of the semester, providing you a chance to comment on how this class is taught. I am very interested in the feedback I get from students, as I work to continually improve my teaching. I consider students' evaluations to be an important part of your participation in this class.

Assignment Policy:

Written assignments should be submitted in hard copy or electronically by the beginning of class on the assigned due date. Late papers will be penalized and will receive a one-third letter grade reduction for each day they are late. So if you turn in an A paper two days late, you would receive a B+.

Exam Policy:

Exams should be taken as scheduled. No makeup examinations will be allowed except for documented emergencies (See Student Handbook). In such a case the student should still make every effort to communicate with the instructor by phone or e-mail prior to the exam and take the make-up exam within a week of the originally scheduled date.

Academic Integrity:

Academic integrity is a hallmark of higher education. You are expected to abide by the University's code of Academic Integrity policy. Any person suspected of academic dishonesty (i.e., cheating or plagiarism) will be handled in accordance with the University's policies and procedures. Refer to the Student Code of Academic Integrity (Policy 7.002) at http://www.untdallas.edu/sites/default/files/page_level2/pdf/policy/7.002%20Code%20of%20Academic_Integrity.pdf Ref er to the Student Code of Student Rights, Responsibilities and Conduct at http://www.untdallas.edu/sites/default/files/page_level2/hds0041/pdf/7_001_student_code_of_conduct_may_2014.pdf

Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating, plagiarizing, fabrication of information or citations, facilitating acts of dishonesty by others, having unauthorized possession of examinations, submitting work of another person or work previously used without informing the instructor, or tampering with the academic work of other students. In addition, all academic work turned in for this class, including exams, papers and written assignments must include the following statement: "On my honor, I have not given, nor received, nor witnessed any unauthorized assistance that violates the UNTD Academic Integrity Policy."

Please note that I take your signing of this statement very seriously, and the minimum grade penalty for violating the Code of Academic Integrity in this course will be a zero on that assignment, quiz, or exam.

Bad Weather Policy:

Campus facilities will close and operations will be suspended when adverse weather and/or safety hazards exist on the UNTD campus or if travel to the campus is deemed dangerous as the result of ice, sleet or snow. In the event of a campus closure, the Marketing and Communication Department will report closure information to all appropriate major media by 7 a.m. That department will also update the UNTD website, Facebook and Twitter with closing information as soon as it is possible. For more information please refer to http://www.untdallas.edu/police/resources/notifications

Attendance and Participation Policy:

The University attendance policy is in effect for this course. Please refer to Policy 7.005 Student Attendance at http://www.untdallas.edu/hr/upol

Diversity/Tolerance Policy:

Students are encouraged to contribute their perspectives and insights to class discussions. However, offensive and inappropriate language (swearing) and remarks offensive to others of particular nationalities, ethnic groups, sexual preferences, religious groups, genders, or other ascribed statuses will not be tolerated. Disruptions which violate the Code of Student Conduct will be referred to the Dean of Students as the instructor deems appropriate. (UNTD Policy 7.001)

Optional Policies

Cell phones and other hand-held electronic devices, including headphones, are not permitted in this class.

Laptops:

Laptops are only permitted with instructor approval and should be used solely for course-related activities. Anyone found surfing the internet during class will lose future computer privileges.
