

Pre-Physical Therapy at UNT

Prospective Student Handout

The Office of Health Professions provides advising and guidance for any current student who expresses an interest in applying and attending a Physical Therapy school after graduation. Though we do not offer a formal program, major, or concentration in Pre-Physical Therapy Studies, we will serve any student who wishes to become a Physical Therapist. Therefore, no UNT student has to 'qualify' for our advising services; as long as you are a current student, we will gladly help you create a plan to achieve your professional goals.

The Office of Health Professions provides the following services:

- Personalized Advising
- Career Exploration
- Application Guidance and Planning
- Review of Entrance Requirements and Prerequisite Coursework
- Professional Timeline
- Interview Preparation and Personal Statement Review

Frequently Asked Questions about Pre-PT at UNT

What prerequisites do I need for PT schools?

All prerequisites are located on the each PT School's website. If you plan to transfer to UNT, please see a list of all Texas PT prerequisites in our Pre-PT Packet (courses are presented as UNT course numbers): <https://cos.unt.edu/sites/cos.unt.edu/files/cos/COS%202017-6-16%20Pre-PT.pdf>

When do I apply for PT school?

Students will apply for PT programs one year before enrollment. Many students use the year in between to complete their Bachelor's degree. Be sure to check all deadlines on the PT Schools' websites.

Is a Bachelor's degree required for admission to a PT school?

Yes. Becoming a PT requires that you earn a Bachelor's degree first. Any Bachelor's is appropriate for admission.

What should I major in?

Many students choose to major in Kinesiology with the Allied Health track because most of the PT prerequisites will apply towards such a degree. Other popular majors: Integrative Studies and Psychology. To learn more about these two degrees, please contact the College of Arts & Sciences to schedule a prospective appointment: 940-369-8606. If you would like to further explore the Kinesiology degree, please contact the College of Education at 940-565-2736. As mentioned above, any major is appropriate, so please contact the department on campus that houses the major of your interest.

Frequently Asked Questions about Pre-PT at UNT cont.

Do I have to major in science?

No. Beyond the required science courses, a broad liberal arts background is encouraged and expected, as is majoring in the field that most interests you.

What will make me a competitive candidate for PT school admission?

Though not all is required, the following information can help you become a competitive candidate:

- GPA: 3.6-4.0 is considered a competitive GPA for PT School
- Entrance Exam: Pre-PT students are required to take the GRE (Graduate Record Examination). Please visit the GRE website for more information: www.ets.org/gre
- Community Service: Pre-PT students should find volunteer opportunities that are consistent and relevant to their passion for serving others
- Clinical Experience: Students should shadow a PT regularly, and obtain direct-patient contact experience (such as PT Technician/Aid experience).

Can I use my AP credit to fulfill my pre-health requirements?

It depends on the schools and the courses. Most schools will accept the credit, as long as the course is listed appropriately on the UNT transcript, along with the number of credit hours. However, it's best if you contact PT programs for more information.

When should I take the GRE?

Ideally, pre-physical therapy students should take the GRE around March of the year they are applying.

Does UNT offer any Pre-Health clubs on campus?

Yes. Please visit our website for a list of Pre-Health organizations on campus:
