

Office of the Mayor
Tomball, Texas

Proclamation

- WHEREAS, October 2011 marked the 102nd anniversary of the founding of the First Baptist Church of Tomball, Texas; and
- WHEREAS, First Baptist Church of Tomball has built three sanctuary buildings, the first in 1922, later removed from the site, the second in 1949, presently existing on site, and the one in current use, completed in 1986; and
- WHEREAS, members of First Baptist Church of Tomball have worked diligently on the construction of their "Open Air Worship Center", located on Quinn Road, and are now ready to dedicate the new worship center; and
- WHEREAS, it is the desire of members of the First Baptist Church to express their thankfulness for the community support they have received during the construction of the new "Open Air Worship Center"; and
- WHEREAS, the City of Tomball, its citizens, and the surrounding community wish to recognize the significant contributions made by the First Baptist Church in promoting sound ethical principles high moral standards, and encouraging faith in Biblically-based spiritual values;
- NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Tomball, on behalf of the Tomball City Council and all citizens hereof, I do hereby proclaim Sunday, May 6, 2012 as:

"FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH OF TOMBALL DAY" and encourage everyone in the Tomball community to rejoice in the dedication of First Baptist Church's new "Open Air Worship Center".

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused this seal to be affixed.

ATTEST:

DATE:

[Signature]
[Signature]
May 3, 2012