

Office of the Mayor
Tomball, Texas

Proclamation

- WHEREAS, there are 1,741 high school bands in the state of Texas and 2013 marks the first senior class for Tomball Memorial High School; and
- WHEREAS, Tomball Memorial High School's "Roarin' Blue Band" became the first high school band from Tomball, Texas to advance to the final UIL state band competition; and
- WHEREAS, the "Roarin' Blue Band" advanced past the first wave of opposing bands in the Greater Houston area, receiving a perfect score from the judges at Wood Forest Stadium in Conroe on October 22, achieving a first division superior rating during regional competition, and winning third place in Area F Marching Band Contest in Galena Park; and
- WHEREAS, the "Roarin' Blue Band" was the only band from Region 9 to advance to the State Marching Band Competition on November 5, 2013 at the Alamo Dome in San Antonio, Texas; and
- WHEREAS, the "Roarin' Blue Band" ultimately placed 17 out of 28 among the high school bands competing in the Class 4A UIL State Band Competition; and
- WHEREAS, by placing 17th, the "Roarin' Blue Band" is among the top 1 percent in the state of Texas; and
- WHEREAS, the City of Tomball and the Tomball Independent School District wish to congratulate the more than 200 band members and approximate 25 colorguard members of the "Roarin' Blue Band", along with Head Director Andy Easton, Assistant Directors Chris King and Dusty Brown, Colorguard Instructor Tim LeBlanc, the Band parents and supporters, and countless others who have worked together to make this the best-ever high school band in Tomball;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GRETCHEN FAGAN, Mayor of the City of Tomball, do hereby proclaim Monday, November 18, 2013 as:

"TOMBALL HIGH SCHOOL ROARIN' BLUE BAND, 2013 UIL CLASS 4A - 17TH PLACE HIGH SCHOOL BAND" DAY

In witness whereof I have hereto set my hand and caused this seal to be affixed.
