

Office of the Mayor
Tomball, Texas

Proclamation

- WHEREAS, Austin Konicki, currently a student at the University of North Texas, hopes to pursue a career in public service; and
- WHEREAS, Austin Konicki has served admirably as a summer intern with the Tomball Office of Emergency Management, demonstrating a commitment to the goals of the mission of the Division, an excellent work ethic, diligence in the performance of assigned tasks and a great sense of humor; and
- WHEREAS, Austin updated various Annexes to the City's Emergency Operations Plan, completed various Department templates of the City's Continuity of Operations Plan, and competed a significant amount of work organizing the data for the Fire Department's Standards of Cover Project; and
- WHEREAS, Austin enrolled in a regional volunteer fire department cadet academy to occupy his evenings and weekends during the summer; and
- WHEREAS, Austin will be remembered for coming into the office each day at 4:55 to inquire "if there was anything else he needed to do before he left for the day";

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Tomball, on behalf of the Tomball City Council and all the citizens hereof, I, Gretchen Fagan, Mayor of the City of Tomball, do hereby proclaim, Monday, August 19, 2013 as:

"AUSTIN KONICKI DAY"

In witness whereof I have hereto set my hand and sealed this seal to be affixed.
